

The Long Journey

51-15

The fear that lies within your heart
Was there from the very first start
You take it where it wants you to go
Where it came from, you don't know
Remembering what you forgot
Is not something you can opt
And if you dare and try it out
It screams to you, it makes you shout
You got distracted, you look away
The fear you have, is here to stay
Don't learn where it was coming from
You don't want to see the truth I saw
But in the end you are still here
And I have still your fear to bear
Just show me what is not allowed
You can take away that cloud
Which makes me thinking, were I was wrong
I find the truth within this tone
To you who is and will be me
I have to know, I have to see
Else I cannot find reality
The fight you fight between myself
Will crack me up, will break my health
Oh, I knew the devil you want to see
I fall again into misery

But think again, what have we now
A live in heaven, but hell we saw
I must demand we all shall die
If these truths are turned to lies
And yes you say, we may should rot
But there is something you forgot
You're not alone, I am between
And what you think, I cannot see
Only a feeling what is there
Which makes you hollow, makes you scared
It is the wheel of always new
But I have seen the darkened truth
Came back haunted as he did
I saw it now, now cannot sit
I cannot stay, I cannot lie
I need to find an alibi
For doing it until I die
That's the curse which makes me fly
However, where I going to
All the colors are in blue
I suspect that this is wrong
Some kind of glasses I have on
Oh yes, it comes with no surprise
That you are seeing it with different eyes
But these are also the ones I've got

And you are first, so not my look
Into the glass what I have been
The biased view I think have seen
Now wondering what I should do
If I am one, or three, or two
The fight they have, between I knew
Is me, what I think they produced
I have to say, I am not amused
It takes the energy from my soul
It makes my grip so extremely cold
Suddenly the words would stop
They waiting for what I have got Appearances as they were here
Oh I want, but I cannot shed one tear
As, if they found me weak and strange
They have again me in their hands
But hiding is not good enough
They come again and they don't bluff
A grip as hard as it could be
To start again my misery
To live again the same old dream
I did not knew, but now have seen
That it repeats itself in me
This is how they came to me and this is how I recognized

The dead and old within my lies
Until I die they will it do
Probably I would never had a clue
Until I read a man that saw
That everything we do is wrong
Wrong reasons, excuses, tragedies
Someone different behind these atrocities
And now I'm starring very close
On what makes me the one who chose
And its not only me I see
The culture, everywhere you've be Takes with you one cold, hard of stone
Which broke your heart and broke your soul
We do not think about this ever
Had religion, that was clever
Absorbing what will destroy us last
Makes a different direction dreadfully fast
When it comes to see the truth
Obey as you don't want to lose
A failure not able to fix again
The world now seems so very strange
A god might laugh at all of us
What a god joke, what a good love
If it would have not been so pretty sad
We all soon would be incredibly mad

But nature does not think of us
What kind of genes they gonna pass
The time which makes us all the end
And everyway you want to bend
It comes right back to the heart
A life to live, a brand new start
You did that well, I gave you that
But makes everything even more sad
Then again, you make me choose
What else we have to lose
Than our choices that we make
It certainly is no mistake
To laugh about reality
It is too much of we can see
This brings me back to my own soul
Were all the garbage takes control
Unless I make them gold again
But I just need to know their plan
Should forget it, was not there
The one voice cried in despair
The other said, I am here, you see
Will not leave, please pay the fee
Of what was not your fault at all
But makes no difference after all
Because I am here, please do respect

And if you don't, you will regret
Both voices make it hard for me
To see the right way, to find the key
The enlightened spoke once to me
If you succeed, than you will see
Surprises as nothing will change
A different perspective, it's quite strange
Still be yourself, but different enough
Outside the box that your prison was
A new world were all is the same
Except you, one is to blame
Don't forget it warns you now
Or I will come from the other how Make you free than slave you again
You don't know why, you don't know when Behind the curtains it will shows
Were it lies, your deep sorrow
Release you once, will put you in chains
I say, this will be never again
What I am speaking to is still me
Will need to see what you have seen
I came across your thousand lies
And still unsure about the why
You demand that you are here
Even if it comes with fear

Will be here till my very death
Catching words with my last breath
Will you show me what was there
I would lied to, I would swear
Come on, tell me now not then
For all I know, was not my sin
But the other name he gave to me
I know what I saw was a sin
I talk around what I don't know
You have the key, so you should know
I see that it is forbidden here
But cannot help, need my mind clear
Built a fortress, castle, cloud
I tried so much, no, its too loud
What you are screaming in my ears
I cannot see, I cannot hear
And all my other things I saw
Mourning as the morning sound
Believe that is not me alone
You have this cross, we must be bold
At the very end you see
Don't want to be what you not want to be
Want to make us whole again
Even if I have to live in pain
It's no difference to me anymore

A different level I adore
A wheel that drives me not too far away
I see it when it starts to fade
A spell I gave: I am you too
You say that I can't stare at you
A change of words, a change of chains
But still in this old chains again
I stay here with all different kinds
They whispering, will blow my mind
Again I am alone in me
As said, I need, I have to see
You both are me, you both are true
I want the truth, I have to knew
I have to go till the very end
Even if tears alone would stand
And this is the fate I see
Going away far beyond reality
Were demons ride my inner soul
Take my time and take control
Drifting through my ashes through Never will be finding truth
Only whispers, don't understand
I know there would be a helping hand
But something inside don't want to see
And it is not you, neither it's me

The hatred came from far beyond
As a child, I see my days haunt
End of a something strange, what was before
Can't say the word, can't tell no more
Still I am here and have to suffer
A dream once without her
Dynamics a wise man once told
The three of us are not to be sold Alone, as two, and finally
That what I talk to is me
Myself and I you know
Put everything in dark colors
As the object that flies high above
Creating shadows, seems it never ends
A signature of myself, creating this old fence
Too high to see what is on the other side
I need to flee, don't have to hide
Wings we all built to fly
But high enough, we will soon die
Like Phoenix our wings will burn
The sun will take another turn
And suddenly in all our space
The heat is high will burn the taste
Can't feel what's there, see only gray
The soul has turned, I am the prey

Of eagles that within my heart
They want my end, so they can start
Feeding her strength with my own flesh
Long ago the past, but fresh
A paradise I need to built
Around this whole, it is a sink
That swallows me alive and well
How does it feel, I cannot tell
The fear has grip, it makes me to knee
Before what was my misery
So green is what I have to built
A place of my own space and will
And still this wall is near by me
I need to know I need to see
Because I am everything, or not
This other space I have forgot
But came back haunted as I lied
I don't need an alibi
I had to choose, but now I'm back
At least I see the wall and cracks
Can't see through though, but do not need
The wings are burned but fists I feel
Crush the stones with my own hands
But a laughter starts again,
Oh no, I did not hear at all

The bricks still there, they cannot fall

It is me who stands right there

And brings it back what I don't dare

I turned around, it's beautiful

But around my back is my last goal

This is my land, I say to me

And even if its misery

It is my land, I need to see

Even it's far beyond my reality

Even if I can't bear the face

Even if I will lose the race

Even if my own heart will stop

Even if my own will will block

Even if they will say I don't

Even if they will say I won't

Respect my cause I will it do

I lean my back and be like glue

We are together and that is clear

I do want if I need to fear

I do want if I need to cry

I do want if I need to die

I do want everything but most of you

I will not rest I need your truth

I see again my very youth

I see again the spinning wheel

It makes me shake it makes me feel
A lightning strike shows me the door
My own paradise, it's not anymore
The weather changed, the rain begun
I do not mind, now start to run Away of what I really am
The truth, I am your biggest fan
I cheer your price, I am with you
Don't want to live without a clue
Must open graves in forbidden seas
The ocean hides deep memories
Swimming down, swimming to me
Something different I have to see
Old questions beg to hide away
Dark corners that will need to stay
A sculpture hidden deep below
To bring the past with one stark blow Triumphing over things that were Faces to see that only stare
Starring back what left to do
Arguments I have a few
But brings again what I do know
These are the lies I have to show
Myself as long I'm living here
I need the love, I do not fear

When paradise is blocked with walls
I need to take the final call
A whisper that will end in cries
To change the winds, to change the tides
What's lost will never come again
The new is hidden in the sand
Brings back memories
Of you
Fading in the fog
Watching the clock
tick, tock, tick, tock
The song of time
Don't want to lose what's mine
In you I gave my heart
A new beginning, a new start
The ideas get blurred
But once I heard
Your voice, that was telling me all
The biggest threat, is still too small
Perspectives waving on different frequencies
You do not hear, you do not see
The fire in your hands speak so clearly
I don't know if you can hear me
So close but far away my thoughts

Give me your hand, don't need the clouds
In caverns we will went so long
To find the curse, to curl the tongue
Small text is written on the wall
Without you I cannot see them at all
Still be afraid but you are here
Makes my weakness, disappear
There is need to hide, no need to fear
It is not you who thinks so clear
A spell that written high above
Where is the end of this large mouth
Who swallowed all what's left of me
A cave of lies that bound to be Still in my paradise I am
Or is this what's called the promised land
But different, as I need to see
That nothing is left what I called my reality
That is all, my questions I just had Waking up on my own bed
Was it a dream, a nightmare or something else
Too confused, I cannot tell
A dream within a dream she said
That means there must be two different beds
And as I look back over me
All is still here as it used to be

Paradise, hell, my lost love
I will never ever gave up
To find you where you need to hide
I forget my selfishness and pride
Take control of this mouth below
It swallows everything as a whole
Go get it I hear, what else you can do
Manifestations of wishes I knew Transform themselves to something new
Had to built back what does not fit
A soul to swallow all my pride
A soul I use to hide
A soul I need to gain the hate
A glory defeat is my fate
What else should be the reason
Goes back and forth with each season
Does not heard a word or two Nothing is the same with you
A mistress, damsel in distress
I swear, I will pass the test
The dreams that haunted
Seems that I wanted
Like a mountain
My words inside my head

Wishing, dreaming, they were dead

No help after all

Had to give up, make me fall

Where answers live

Who sees them must die

Better than living in a lie

Green and red flowers

Beautiful drawings

Not meant to be seen

For us only, nature is green

Hiding as someone's else

Five minutes before twelve

What does it mean

If nature is green

Should it be seen

What was left of us

We see in stars

Only we

Do not see

Alone with our eyes

We are like flies

As animals, a new truth

Forgotten youth

Back again

We are not friends

Nor enemies
We simply flee
But still do not see
Never ends
Which way to bend
Coming back all alone
Still we are not gone
With all ourselves
Something different helps
New perspectives
One should live with
As I don't know
What you have gone through
I can only tell you my tale
How my heart turned gray
Now the only color
Is red which I borrowed
Mixing my feelings to blazing skies
You shall be my alibi
As said before
For sure you want get bored
As the journey continues
Bring with you your white shoes
A new start we said
A new star we make

A new way we find
Once we will be not blind
Once we will go to caves
Digging through the maze
Drifting through thousand wholes
We get through after all
A shangri-la of whatever sort
In the mountains that never mourn
Ice and fire is our mind
Don't want to be another kind
Thinking silent of me
I still can't and don't want to see
Between the lines is what I have to tell
Can't read but you could help myselfes
So I can help you too
Don't need to be colored in blue
The things you told in the night
I heard, even when you were oversight
A bias that let us forgot
That we cared a lot
For both of us
We wanted to pass
The big wall that kept us apart
A line of thought that was for the art
To bring back the light of time

A magic spell that makes us rhyme

What we are thinking about

I will be here your scout

Till you start sleeping

I will be keeping

You warm, I promise my dear

With me there is nothing to fear

In my arms you can feel save

We will be for no one a slave

To cover the night to keep us warm

You will feel like a newborn

You are indeed, now you see

What you are and what you can be

Again blurred, but it's the future

So gone use her

So gone be her

So gone see her

So gone keep her

So gone leave her

And be back in my arms

Together a farm

In the space of time

To reap what was not mine

To reap what was not yours

Still we live like the hours

That we stole from the sleep
Nothing we should keep Nothing we should praise
Nothing we should face
Nothing we should do
Nothing we should do
And one more time
Nothing we should do
That is the miracle of me and you
Observers of the marines
That fight and kill for glories
A watch, a clockwork, now we know
Even if it started with a blow
It will not end with another glow
Of blizzards, no it won't
Who is dreaming, who is awake
I can't tell, my eyes too sad
Can't stop my laughter, no it won't
This produced world, I will not hold
Beyond the surface our mind will hide
So it does not need to lose its pride
So it can choose what it's like
Not only devils, but angels who might Fight for the ones they loved long ago

To make the soul again like snow
To break the chains, to gain control
Of nothing else and nothing at all
Still we are only two of us
To survive, to make it pass
So many people may think differently
But their questions my eyes can't see
Noir do they mine or anyone else
A shining light is what may help
But only darkness does prevail
A lonely sailor might will tell
How he survived the final tide
Like a cowboy on his ride
We guess, but never asked him loud
So what should be said with this in mind
Don't understand, so not my kind
The same could said by you I think
On this sea we both need to swim
What's down below I don't want to look
But maybe you stand tall and should
And tell me what you see down there
Is there something that just stares
At me which wants to simply kill
It is my wish, is it another will
In between, I see islands

We both may want to see the sand
And what's around a lighthouse, I feel in my soul
Who takes our hand so light and cold
Or has the stare just recognized
His own hunger and appetite
Of prey that is one of its kind
I cannot help, need to be blind
Bring me through and I show where
The starring ends, no starring, no stare
Flowers to flow in river beds
Each a dream, each one turns away
Comes back from waterfalls of scream
No need to hide, no need for sleep
The rocks are beds for everyone
A place to rest, where we belong
A rainbow that will show us truth
The colors tell us what to do
Bring together full of joy
Don't need to cry here anymore
Where love is all and nowhere hate
All negative will desintegrate
Goes up to skies and forms us clouds
Reminding us of our doubts
That we all left before the door
The entrance for the last hour

Change of perspective, as he said once
We can't tell the future, but we should run
Shout out loud
Stop thinking, transform yourself into a cloud
Leave alone what should be love
Makes you think so high above
Never want to come down again
However, the road to go will bring you back
On track to see were you belong to A sky so limitless we fly through
A land so large we need ages to cross
That makes an understanding of us
Of all the plants that needed to grow
Of all the insects, legion as snow
Of all the animals, that do not know
Of our spirit, that makes all glow
Standing, walking, running, now jump
Like birds that hump
New ways discovering, on the ride
Soon they will die
Ignorance or betrayal
Soon they will fail
Soon they will see
What is behind the me
A watching stone

Used to crush bones
Used for the brain
Now gone insane
What else should they do
It is not me, nor it is you
Out of the blue
Surprises come true
New ideas of your ego
But now you just feel low
Of memories from the past
They will not last
Just few minutes away
Now start to pray
Please let me forgot
What I once thought is my hub
A center of the dead
Used as daily bread
To live through the life
Probably in disguise
What else do you see
I don't know anyone but me
You too feel the same
This is no shame
The one key to ourselves
It can be found at the end of hell

Where the heaven begins
Nobody wins
Nobody lose
You cannot choose
Just dance to this blues
Ignite it with fire
With your burning desire
Make red what once was there
No need to be scared
It was you who made me do it
Now have to go alone through it
No need for regrets
I saved all your bets
In one can that will show
In one single blow
Who you really are Men full of scares
Each one a tale
That darkness prevails
Orders we hear
The self disappears
One among all
Don't stand, just fall
Simple funeral
Don't mind it at all

Well, we said
But we forget
One thing is true
We follow the muse
Try to grasp
But did not last
One small touch
Too
The long way
Try to obey
In our words
Let it out
No, it hurts
Try to shout
Let it all out
I know
One blow
Everything disappears
Except what we hear
One line of sight
Who is next to me
Should I fight
I want to see

But can't Running sand
Clockwork goes
Need to choose
Where to go
Still don't know
Need to get out of here
Gone disappear
In this fetish of mine
Living like a swine
The end as a start
Will not fall apart
One thing is here
That does not fear
Don't see it now
But I feel that it grows
Far beyond me
A new self emerges
Then I will see
My virtualities
What will be real
What can I feel
What can I hear
What is so near
That I hear the whispering

Everything is whispering
Brings out the tone
So many, but still so alone
A miracle we not died
From the sounds of the denied
They are here
No need to fear
Already was there
Already scared
Already still here
Already not disappeared
Already we know
Already showed Already next to me
Already next to you
Already could it see
Maybe just a few
Maybe just two
Maybe just me
Maybe nothing
Maybe all
Can't hang on something
Which falls
With me

Few Always so new Always again
Still we're not friends
Come back
Another day
We said o.k
In churches we pray
Along the way
Till we meet
Ignoring the seed
For the spinning wheel
Moving
Loosing and loosing
And new starts again
We will be friends
That is the road we go
With nothing to show
But our hearts which glow
Lightning the dark
Darkening the light
The soul was once our pride
But now shattered with truths
We all are confused

Which way to run
Nothing else matters
So choose one
Still will be shattered
Because this is our land
And yours
Castles built out of sand
Still bored
Are the ghosts
But why
I lied
To them
Can't do another thing
Waiting to hear the ring
Somebody calls
I am too small
In this corridor
The words don't fit anymore
Need to break free
Need to see
The way out
What is all about
Deep in our hearts
The truth takes us apart
But now the walls must be moving away

I want to see the real new future from a brand new day
Which means I have to let loose of all the things I once have said
It was not only a truth it also happened to be just very bad
And something lurking far far away from my side
I see another wall to ride
Need to close my eyes, I said to myself
Need now one to help me get out of this shelve
I'm not in, that is what I need to realize
I am with you, that is one of my biggest lies
Nothing is here but me I now see
Who was creating my reality
Which is now only virtually
Which brings back the walls
Need to be tall
Shout
About
Nightmare gone
Still all is wrong
What I am doing here
Who is so near
I feel you are there
I feel your stare
Right in front of me

Still I cannot see
Will I freeze to death
When I catch your breath
When I see a glimpse
Teeth behind your lips
Who are you, I asked
Am I wearing a mask
Or is it you who hides
Nothing on my side
More and more confused
What should I have used Instead my deepest fear
Only white noise I hear
And yes now I see
The hatred in me
The hated in you
Coming out as new Coming out again
Is now my own brand
What is watching me
When I cannot see
I feel all about
What I lost in the crowd
Of everyone
Who could have done

A favor to me
To let me see
What they have thought
But there was no word
Only some kind of watching
But also this has past
Nothing lasts
In this line of sight
Which makes nothing bright
And you ask me
What can I see
When I see through your eyes
Can't understand
Where you went
And what you have done
Need to move on Without you
No clue
So look away
Please do not stay
Need to fade
Not into gray
Need the sun
Together alone
But you are wrong

And I am right
I saw the light
The end of the street
That begins with me
That will end in you
That changes us two Chances we have
Step up from your grave
Bring up the air
Fresh without care
New born
A new form
Not with me
My road ahead I still see
You can leave
Rest in peace
War is not for everyone
I was born
Right in there
You don't need to care
Just come back
When you feel me
Will give you my words
So you can see
Through me

And I through you
Don't know you too
Brings us back
Together in black
The night our friend
This journey will end
With a miracle
Laughing hysterical
As going along
Watching what we will become
Your head right up in the sky
Need need no reason
Don't ask the why
If it is feasible
All I am saying
Will not betraying
You or anyone else
The truth needs its tales
The lies our alibis
Both are one
Transform into the sun
Blending us right
There is the night
And behind is the bright
All walls take our hopes

But simply say no
Turn back and go alone
This is your sun
Running through
The valley of death
Only few
Save your last breath
For me and lastly for you
Seen it, been it
Desert in front
We move along
New and new Old and old
True
The world has gone blind
Don't need our kind
Still we are not too few
To start something new Only thing now to do
Is to make us whole
As have been told
By the ocean
Which lies before us
In its majesty

A new road I see
No walls around now
Only freedom and one cloud
Get's larger until it fills the sky
Don't know how and don't know why
Just feel pain and suffering
Every pleasure only a dream
That is what the cloud tells me
That is what I only see
Nevertheless it is true
It brings darkness for you
Where is the sun, so high above
The cloud is hiding her sweet love
One thing what it is all about
It is too big and is too loud
So let the rain begin to start
Only rain will make small the cloud
Until
I have gone were the wild flowers grow
In my heart set as hard as a stone
My love before you on my throne
I invite to be with me
Forever not alone
Take my hand my dear
I plea guilty of falling into your arms

There is no time ahead
When creatures crash
And roses hurt
Red as the river
Along the sidewalks
We see buildings tumbling
Falling into the fluid
Making waves again
Back to us
Getting wet
Once again
And once again
Our own imagination
Of something deep inside
All promises
All lies
Need to help us to get out of this cloud
Time so short
Time so long
Don't know
We all don't know
Still we move on
To something we think we belong
To, no other ideas

Just tries
Just nothing and everything
It makes us wings
We should fly
At least we should try
That is the why
Suddenly the sun comes by
No more need to cry
Just laugh and say goodbye
Come another day dark one
We are all both moon and sun
The wheel that does not stop
Still breaks my heart
Going alone across the ocean
Masses pile up at the horizon
Another type we belong
This time I would need to dissolve
Which means I am involved
In everything and nothing
So save in here
Still so dark with all of them
Instincts are giving us the order
With strict borders
Were we are onto the map
No feelings no regrets

Just life without the soul
Total control
A sweet escape
But we all would regret
Too far behind us now
To do it like the snow
Own crystals we are
The need to be so far
Away from the next best
Only makes stress
Which again is you and me
Which again we cannot see
Which again takes us apart
Which again breaks our heart
Which again makes us questioning
Asking what was happening
Looking for the call
Does not matter after all
In the mountains, ocean, skies
I can't find the reason why
I can't find myself to help
I don't know which way to bend
I don't know which way to go
I don't know what I've been looking for After all these many steps

I still have so many regrets
Could this really true for me
That I'm not what I was used to be Transformations of the blind
Everyone is my own kind
Just another step away
From the birth and were we stayed
Can't be known and will betrayed
By us and we don't know
Look behind the consciousness flow
Deep behind it gonna throw
All the hatred that you don't know
Bring to an end what it will show
Soon you learn you still don't know
And this is what you know about
That you actually don't know a lot
Maybe less than nothing here
All the ghosts will disappear
But you don't know what to fear
And you don't know for whom to care
Just look at your worst nightmare
And tell yourself what you afraid of
This will not be paid of Irrespective of what you made of
So who you are listening

Is there a reasoning
Line on line within the song of time
I am you but you are not mine
Make the journey so sublime
I would, if I could, but here, still is the fear
Behind my back
Don't look back
You need to relax
Just relax
Think again, at least twice
What was right and which are lies
For you, like alibis
Hiding behind her skirt
His skin like silk
I know I should not ask
I know nobody is for you the last
I know I should wait in the line
I know it would be better to be blind
I know that you do not hear
I know that for you it is very clear
I know you heard all the words
But they mean little for you
I know
We all know
Sorrow

Away you cloud
You want to be the one
But you are not my sun
You are not my only sister
You are not a mister
You are not a lady
You are not mother or father
Or anything maybe
You are not me
Now I see
You are me
Now I see
You not me
Got lost along the way
No need for me to stay
Nothing changed
Still the same
Full of shame
I am the only one to blame
Couldn't figure it out
Now I need to walk
Away from this scene
I was living in Start anew
With a new sky with you

Hand in hand
In tolerance
Full of trust
There will be a way
Our secret is hate
So desperate
To find the right words to say
It will be the key
Out of misery
Come along with me
We both can see
What is out there
If we are not scared
Promising
Swearing
This is the world we want to live in
The land of our dreams
It is not reality
We don't want to see
We want the new
Like everything
Only truth
Even if we don't like to see

We will be free
Afterwards
Through these chords
Through this land
Again
To be there what we call home
Perfect, to be alone
Forever
Still together
It makes so much sense
To stay at this fence
If we lose confidence
In one sentence
We get it all
And dance
In this labyrinth
Which swallows ideas like a sink
Going to, where we belong
Being weak or being strong
It will not be wrong
Irrespective of what we have done
Do and will do
The decision will matter
No need to wait for later

The trust gone
We do not belong
Took too long
Now it's wrong
Don't want to live with it
But have to take every bit
Forgotten the treasures before
Just a simple door
One went through
Cannot get back
Only a few
Didn't regret
Not only me
But all are in too
Now that I see
Too late to get through
Have been burned
Lesson learned
What will be done now doesn't matter at all
This was the final call
To stand at the wall
And wait for the fall
Easy at it is Everybody pissed
Hell waits

Who forgot, have to pay
Still does not matter at all
Just another final call
Because it is our fault
Seems that I deserve it too
Don't know what to do
Have to live with it
Even if it's shit
No excuses to make
My soul just need to break
My body broken too
Because I lived with you
So the end is near
Or something what I want to hear
Can't stand it
Need to blend it
The drink too pure
There seems to be no cure
Just tears in the next room
Would need to cry too
But can't, I said before
Only guilt and hate I have in store
That's how it is
There is something I miss
I missed long time ago

But it did not showed Just strangers who shout at you
Why, we will never knew
After all, it was my fault
Did not saw it so big
But it was a direct hit
Now everything stands alone
All the last hopes are gone
Sucking in what left is there
See myself and I am scared
Running from what I used to be Only now a distant memory
Go today, will come again
Misery is my best friend
I walk with all but let him go
Where he travels I don't know
Just another comes to me
To remind me of what I used to be Taking what is left in this house
Cellar with dead and doors all closed
Every room you find is only one
Sure even the last is gone
When I step outside the rain
I don't need to feel the pain
To remember that all what I have is gone

All excuses from this fact are born
Training my eyes so they can see What's not there but should have been Ghosts I love and are my friends
Even myself can see through my brains
A door as said but all wide shut
Empty hands is all I've got Darkness roads I have to roam
Never coming back to home
Thinking were I was so wrong
Being a liar feels so strong
When I see the devils truth
Everything he paints in blue
All the pictures I could take
Are dark colors full of prey
That we hope to never find
Enemies enemy are all my friends
Jump on shoulders so they can spread
Search for something already dead
Whispering: I can't let loose
I already have once chosed
Since then I am just very kind
All I say, I'm gonna get blind
Between the words we all know when Everyone, some different time

In the chaos that will come
The truth will speak the loudest tone
Hurts the most, makes all confused
We all think we are abused
And that is right no matter what
Maybe we have all forgot
But still remember the very past
Till we make the final breath at last Infinities are left behind
Everyone gets in the line
Outliers you cannot find Difference is meaningless
When you forget what it takes
To make us reflexive
To unmake this
To see this Last kiss
Fist
Down
Eyes closed
You have lost
Stand up again
Another round
Dancing without a sound
The theater goes on

Who has found
Who has won
The treasures
The dirt
The same for him
Can't stand between
Is there a chance to win
Without a choice
Without a voice
Going insane
Whom to blame
Is it a shame
Are we banned
Are we damned
Could we see
How it really is Now I know
I was too long here
All of them should disappear
The answer is not fear
The answer is not love
The answer lies above
The answer lies below
The answer is not one
The answer has gone

Does not matter at all

We need to fall

And learn to fly

The hardest thing

Chances within

So we can win

But ultimately loose

So why to choose

We all ask

In the cask

Dark

Light

Fight

Of us

Be the last

We won't ask

The why

The tries

All we have done

In the past

Has born

From mistrust

But now we know

The land we see

Conquer
What has been
And to say
I wanted it that way
But not for me
I am not free
I am in a cage
Full of rage
Of the truth
That I saw in my youth
Now wandering
To find the thing
Which makes me calm
And bring the warmth
Into this cold
Which is so old
Which is so strong
I am so weak
And was so wrong
Now have to forgive
What I have lived
Without your hand
That burned this land
To ground
I see now clearly

That I found it nearly
In your eyes
Of fire
Which walked with you
But not with me
As I still can see
The demonic tone
That broke all bones
Cannot stand now tall
But after all
I can see your fall
Which is the me
Which cannot see
But tasted the blood
It is his mud
And also mine
If his the last in the line
Which can be thought back Still I lack
One final feel
I will reveal
The surprise we felt
As we lost the belt
Stand naked there
We don't cared

As nothing wrong
If all has gone
Riding thoughts
Got lost
Forever lost
You are here too
I ask myself
Can it be true
There is no one else
The dream
Like the ocean
It seems
Some kind of potion
I took from you
Only a few
I read
But instead
You have been here too
So you read me
And you see
We need both keys
To unlock the gate
It will desintegrate
Fade away
What is there

We need to take care
Of all the things
With broken wings
Get the cure
To be sure
On the right track
With promises on our back
That need to be sowed
Taking care of Till they grow
To harvest all
Digesting the soul
Transformed again
Don't ask when
But will happen soon
For tears no room
Anymore
Until we break the law
That we don't know
Will find out
Inside the cloud
Seems like I'm already in
Don't know if I should win
This fight with whom

I don't know
Maybe a friend
I do not understand
Maybe a foe
To confuse me even more
Maybe something totally different
A line without an end
Just like smoke
Or some kind of fog
Makes dizzy
So come with me
Together we go
Where the flowers grow
Where we all smile
At least for a while
Till the demon hunts again
As we not remembering
What we made of from the start
Not excluded from the dark
Sitting here
Yes
It is all chaos
Yes
It is all order
Yes

Yes

It makes no sense

Yes

We have no choice

Yes

We cannot stop

Yes

I am here

Yes

You are there

Yes

It is no

No

It is yes

I tried

But I failed

Now come with me

So also you can see

Truth has spoken, silence remains
All these lies run out my veins
Left my body, now I die
Can't live without it, my last cry
Demons hunting for my soul
Have to give up after all
What they want is what they get Nothing worth, so no regret
Angels told me not to fear
But when they go I disappear
The light they hold is not for me
Go away or I have to flee
As darkness reigns I see it clear
Nothing as it once appeared
The flesh is cold but not the heart
Have to lose so I can start

It was written in the stars
I have to play my part
What lies before the sand
Is taking now my hand
I do not know but why
Another alibi
To run away from home
My feelings like a stone
The tears you have not seen
What is will not has been
If eons pass again
He does not think of time
But words will follow him
This will not be a sin
It is the promise he will get
So I do not will regret
The song to sing just now
Even the breath is cold like snow
But still will heat, what is not me
Want myself to see in him.

He is who tells me when to stop
He is the one who is on top
He says just when I have to go
He does not care if I am alone
He saw it all what once was there
He does not know why he should care
He heard them all what they have said
He does not think that he is bad
It walks the way he goes
He does not need to choose
The arguments he heard
Where not too strong
They do not last here very long
They can be small, they could be tall
They all be driving into a wall
Where nothing is what we could know
But at the end he will us show
The hate or love he will not see
That's not the way he gonna thinks
I heard the words they others said
There's nowhere to hide, just run away
But he is there before you will
And then he does another kill.

I am the one you speaking to
What I am are, you have no clue
They spoken all in same old tone
Standing before the very throne
They had their dreams, now they are gone
They are the flies, not like the sun
What they have wanted, they will not get
I stole their souls without regret
Now what is here, was there before
What I have seen, would make you bored
But I stand tall, no one gets through That's how I make the always new
There is no line, but my own curve
It is a reason, not from your earth
You may will take your very chance
But soon you know if you can dance
On corpses piled upon the sky
Before you see, you think you're blind
The most important from your view
Is just a reason, not to be true

I came across the armies
Who wanted to be seen
They wandered like the last wish
But could not stayed within Time ended and so did they
Who thinks about them now
I took everyone with all their dreams
They did not last the dawn
Now you stand here, I let you so
But all is just the same
You may think you're different
But I am not a game
The save you search, the ever last Illusions in your head
And if you think you can spell the cast
It took your soul away
So try it now, you soon will find
Your words I do not hear
The time you have runs very fast
Another one can't bear
Still try it out, it will not hurt
What has to be, is done
Again as it was in the past
I do not know if you the one

You see the dark, now is the end
What was will never be Soon after you will pass the bridge
I take you back to me
The things you thought, the words you said
I make you see the sign
What happened at the very start
Will fall down like the rain
A sea creates what was not there
You soon will have no pain
The arguments you had before
Will drown under my vain
Never will be born again?
Before eternity will end
Just after that I come my friend
To take the gift of life
You stood just there a thousand times
What you would say if you would knew
You do not need to pray
Just sing the song I like to hear
Will tell you how to fade
I wait now here no time exists
And yes again you be
I said you do not have to fear
As long as you will sing

I am the fear that haunts your dreams
What I will say will be
You can sail upon the stars
The black man still you see

The moon, as in the silver line
Is born down, deep within
Like the night, when sun don't shine
It also hides their sin

Come and you will see with me
By traveling through space
Beyond the trees you let it be
No one can change my ways

Silver starlight down again
And so we fall apart
Look at those dreams, a graveyard like
They flew away too far

Days after days we travelled
To make it true for you
Don't know of any mistakes you made
But falling down from blue

I will make this very clear
This is the law for all
You may be as much as strong you want
Before me you not tall

We sail through the endless night
My eyes with you
Blinking in gold
There, up the sky
Take them or leave
About the thousand planets
Asking the questions on the why
But forget, you are with me
So what is love when our eyes run dry
Where we should go
When the wild river flows
Is it a scratch we have to live with Looking for someone with love
In a house without feelings
Again and again we saw the reflections in our mind
Back there in the illusion
There are the scared
A night without feelings
Where hostile conditions arise
The needle, drop it down
But here comes again, touch the flame
So spin around, and spin it back
That is how the world got so big Within its world, rather than you
It does it

I got no new information
But gave away a sweet sensation
While sleeping in an old shirt
Try to get a new pillow
But found myself some other place
Dancing to amazing grace
Trying out the new bought shoes
Mobile phones will do no use
So you are my sacred baby
I do now want it any other way
So if you think all makes no sense
The shepherd would wish he was a sheep
So he wouldn't be a liar
Cause we all would have to beat
What we wanted to be
So now we have to be quick on our feet
When we see them meet
Would not need to be this way
Ancestors what you would say
I am so sad
Seems can't take the pressure
Have me to blame
My skinny skin you know my name
My life for the price of fame

Become a Haiku that you know it's' worth

But can't get in, into this church

What the fuck within this world
Need to go, cuddle my girls a last time
This is my way, I have to go
All the bills which fly in
By the medal it gives my chance
So let it do the boys who want to choose
Say my name and take a good look
This could be you
But I just need to stand
There are the new
Besides me and I just need to say
I just want to life
To touch and hold you, but never again
So one day we find this place of hope
You say, with your beautiful voice
So I hold on to you
In another time, I will be right on time
Waited so long and so lonely
Now with you I wait to be born again
With love comes the day
To the final end, you are right on time
Now I feel your racing heart
Will be golden profit times
We believe what they say is true

Temptation to be one

They spoke the language of the dawn.

If one wants to see he sees
So who's got to blame
For what has been chosen
But I can tell you this is no lie
The whole world will be delivering it soon
You want believe it
Just human talk
Stand behind the bars and you will see
Don't want to, but do want
Making love with angels prey
So any constant is that it does not change
Follow the crowded for the price of fame
Just a slave day by day
While other just gone down to pray
Another motivation of us
Don't want to think, just want to feel
If you heard about the day I die
By looking at the clouds
Which covering the sun
But I said there will be a new day
There will be an eastern dream that also make me insane
We do not know they got it, so likely be a bloodbath

I am the one alone
If else, you would not have become
A slight change in my nature
Everything would be undone

What you may think important
I do not see this way
No one will be immortal
That is my final say

The dreams of even strongest
I crushed without delay
When their time was over
They also had to fail

Even the ones with purest hearts
I gave no minute more
Persuading me with all your art
No second will be stored

All time is crushed within my hands
That's how I say should be
When I make the final call
There is no place to flee

What you will do, will matter not
My gift, simple and plain
A treasure for the Everyone
Will take away all pain.

I will sing what you want to hear
The only way to lose my fear
The brutal and the lovely ones
I know for me, it can't be done
We go beyond the sky above
The universe not big enough
More of a symbol what it has to be
From here until eternity
Has brought us back where we belong
It was too dark, the night too long
So tired of what we saw along
We will not come back for more
I let it be and you will join
There are two sides of this one coin
The one I am, the other you
Why is that so, we did not know
But now we went where no one was
We saw the reason, saw the cause
The burning flames they touched upon
Now we never will be anyone

I sleep among the dead
To see if I still live
I'm hiding in the shades
Don't want to show my grieve
What once was told to me
I lost long time ago
Now just fading memories
That makes me move so slow
The grip I had is gone
No haven me can hold
Eternities alone
The peacefulness untold
Drifting through my sea
Of tears that once were shared
What I thought it was me
Never ever cared
I see the sky above
I cannot reach my loved
I drown into the dark
I wish I could be stark

What is left of all the years
Seems now to disappear
No understanding of us two Nothing stands now for our truth
What is said has said before
Does not make another score
Make no more apologies
Forgot was once has pleased
A cage a mirror I now see
Victim of reality
All my dreams are now gone
Did not know what I now want
What I thought it was me
Is not left within my memory
Struggle with the everyday
Everything falls to decay
Different emotions I had hoped for Now it seems I am done , or

Soundless voices between us two
A world you live in, a world I live in Disconnected, don't understand what you are saying
A speech from deep within I hear
Tells the story of my past
Which goes beyond my future
A certain death
Still the situation makes no sense
Fear and despair around me
Too many things want me to do
Lost in the middle
Who could find out
Everybody locked in here too
But separated from walls of words
The good, the bad
Meaningless
But creators of chaos
No connection but a tiny little whole
Different for all
The demons in us watched it long
They want to bring us down
Succeeded now, this was their goal
I am now without a soul
But still feel the burn

The Stealer

Once I was up high up in the sky
And felt feelings I could not believe
Don't believe it myself I had them once
Decided to never let them down
But something came along the way
Stayed there went together
I believed in everything you said far too long
Now it is pulling me down
To earth and much deeper in the mud
The hell awaits and gives back what I have forgot
Could not know that it will be this way
Now I have to suffer because I did not stay
With all thinking I am now on my knees and pray
Brings me to corners and wants a decision made
Still the feelings in my heart want me to stay
Cannot leave to another place
Discussions we had once

The beast inside of us

The dogs that bark to leave the place
The demons which will tell the tale of hate
The innocence which cannot breath
The heart which breaks in two
The breath which can't get out
The blackness which takes over
The rising fear of sound
It wants to break free
It was too long hidden from you
It does not care what you have else
It makes the move and wants to fight
It tries to end the prison of emotion
It is only there to remind ourselves
That something lost if we let it free
Never to come back again
Oh heart, could you not start again
Another pulse to what was left behind
We cry our tears and don't see the sun
Until we agree with what it said
And combat the world it lives in The space without air
Once we were men
Now I am nothing
Because of you, I fear

I should not have spoken
The words come wrong
The world comes wrong
So gray without us
So colorful with emotions
A living corps which dreams of flowers
A peaceful place that cannot be reached
Only the confusion is the part we have in common
Tries to think about starts which were ends
A long road that nobody goes just once
Weapons left alone, wandering through the garden
Searching for another try
They are so real, they have deserved a place in our heart
Which will kill us together
There is now, I with you
Left behind what was important for me
Now I am in this cell and can't get out
You brought down everything I've got
I gave it to you, so that my mouth will shut up
My mind still runs in circles
Again and again I don't know
Which path to go

THE WOLVES

A band of animals that rage Hungry for the meat Short time only within the cage Nearly no more heat Prey that runs and full of fear As the wolves that starve to death From above it seems so clear What they want is flesh Breaking through the barricades Another ones small world As they start to fade away Another world will burn Searching for the weakest link Did not take too long As the prey just starts to sink They hear another song Killing caused the way to heaven And so we may think too Everything is more than seven So they have to lose The pack goes on and eats with joy What they not searched before It seems they are another toy Behind some other core	A human saw this struggling Felt bad for the losers end Anything has meaning This was the way to bend He searched around he took positions Of how this might be true At the end he had a vision That make him feel so blue But truth is truth one has to accept The picture will now change What is ones joy is another's death The sum is not to blame Just different views will not collide To one overarching theme Maybe we should found the pride That we are able to have seen No values therefore are given here A tragedy just on the ground What is the thing, the greatest fear Within the worlds wonderful sound A jump above to see like birds A drink of wine to see the words A falling down in suffering We are everything that's in-between.
---	--

It started once, just leave it alone
Into the sunlight it was thrown
Not before they could have shown
Reminiscences of what was gone
Now the things look differently
Everybody supposed to be
Not your friend, the enemy
Starring through the fog you see
People that will walk with you
Bringing everything they want to you
Speak in tongues they steal from you
Be suspicious if they come close to you
After all is said and done
You are again right in the sun
Shadows that you liked so long
Fade away as they are gone
Both before and what is now
Is the same you don't know how
Before the world you have to bow
Swimming in the big old crowd

Fear is what we feel all our life
Every minute every second
A war was once, now it is in our heart
Can't get rid of it anymore
And as we jumped over the hill
So am I now leaving behind what is here
So strong and willing to take all
This is my fear, which is inside
From dark blue corners of our past
A jump down below the cellar
Just saw what is there
The books and magazines
And in the middle, the chain of teethes
Following the one I need to catch
Forgetting what was once above
Shooting through the rooms
Comes out of their wholes
But no butterflies they are Nightmares in dreams you dreamt
Don't know what it was telling us
The words are far apart
Only pictures now and trust
That one who lost all
Even not free
Will pay the price in miracles

Closing my eyes, I feel I am back in the whole
The cause for it, I know now, was not my fault
Haunted by dreams, I bow down
Had to gave up, was swallowed as a whole
Searched for the truth, but the truth has escaped
The door now has closed, it was locked with my hate
Now climbed through the lock, still don't want it to see
Not sure just right now in which room I am in Visions just fade, another will rise
Seems that truth cannot be seen with my eyes
But the skin tells me more and it shivers in fear
Praying the flesh that caught me disappear
It push me around it makes me to move
That this is my hell is not something to prove
Just the ears, they hear my own voice
Giving the chance that I still have a choice
Is it coming from the door next to me
Which one is I and is there a we Can I trust them or need I to leave
Dissolving in liquid, digestion, I breed

In the middle of the forest

Can't see the way, can't see the light
Abandoned as we were, searched for meaning
Trees put to sleep, a dream I won't forget
Remember love, he taught us
Search for love if you failed before
Into the deepest hell he wanted to go
Finding the love and watching the pain
The forest, no clear thinking before the next tree
There is no end we think
Only an everlasting beginning
A ring we have to walk
Each same step spirals down
To earth and what we are Mud and dust within time and space
Something must be flying
This is the forest of dreams we are living
Within a dreamers dream nothing is real
Anything is possible
A decision to be taken
Stay here or fly away
You feel lighter
Man in the forest
You need to see both truths
Before you decide what is real and what is not

There are words to be found
Behind the pages number
A secret kept in dark places
Abandoned and found again
By someone else
Clouds make it difficult to see
A must have for everyone
The price you want to win
The race that makes you sing
Storming through the world
I saw now everything and in between Lost conciseness but what was it for Another talking into the wind
But do not go easily into the light
He told and held his hand
What else to be said
What else to be done
To make the spell
Appearing yet and hearing the tone
Breaking down, soon it will start
Before it told you
Afterwards no one will speak

Everyday I see the sign
The grim ripper behind my ears
Talking from the end
The road we all take
The distance everybody has to walk
He said, not I
Into the space I put my heart
The distance will make me shine
A sun is causing me shiver
Wrecked nerves
Never going back again
This ocean was full once with dreams
Now it is the abyss of maintenance
Crazy visions, blurring through my mind
Do not need substance to create things
The grim ripper waits for us all
A myriad of dreams
All forgotten once and remembered
Fading away
Do not go easily to the light
You heard it before
But this universe is two
An eternity away and more
You heard it once
But you cannot remember

A door you see
Exists as it exists now
Behind blue doors
Truth she said
Like an angel
Jumping on me
And picking, like needles
I want to paint the world
With words not from this world
But I can't
So what is left my dear
The stone has spoken
It will not get away
Before it answers our sins
But he is not moving
Not looking at us
No answer from him
The answer of loneliness
Can anybody live with that Without going mad
She asked again
Jumping on me
And painted the world
With words from this world

Life like a prison
Continues to shine
Brought out of visions
They have to be mine
Trusting the hunters
They follow, it seems
Just like a panther
The strength is within Tired of starrng
We have to walk on
The cloths we are wearing
Soon will be gone
Naked as truth the kingdom will come
When it's happen, I don't want to be alone
The nightmares I am dreaming
I don't know for whom
When I awake screaming
I think death comes soon
Tracking the thoughts
Hidden deep in my heart
Something that laughs
Creates nothing, but takes apart

The bed we are lying
Will soon disappear
Don't fear
Only spying
Standing up to be tall
The finger like ants
The glance
Drop the ball
A look through the window
Something is in the way
Don't say
You blow
Theater at your door
Dancers of another dimension
Feel the tension
You sour
A working place for everyone
Need the tools
You fool
Trust no one
Just jump and learn to fly
Or hit the ground, don't ask us why

As full as it can be
We start
Time passes
And so are you
Passengers to the unknown destiny
We all need the news
Seems so
But we cannot accept
In your heart is more
A fountain of everything
Coming down
All over you
Have no fear
Stand under it
Choose
The enigmatic or material flow
Like a bridge
Ready to collapse
But doesn't
Or will, now
What does it matter we think
But no answer except from us
Would it be enough
Or do we need the feelings
Beyond our imagination

The universe within Planets and stars
Burning the soul to the ground
Cold as the darkness
Everything influences everything
Chaos it seems Complexity it is
The unknown beyond the truth
Words cannot tell
Lies will not help
The laws will tell something
Still nothing is said
What the process would tell us
Could not be understood
The missing link
Between the many and one
A secret to be told
A secret to be kept
Will it make a difference if we knew Respice finem
But what does it mean for us
And what does it mean for you
There are your wings
To go to heaven
Just something different from far away

Too far away to be one of us
A transformation to be made
To reach infinity and beyond.
A simple goal was given to us
To be born and die thereafter
Productive stages what is all about Information flow like the blood in our veins
Curling around like the lie on your tongue
A distance unknown to us
But the in-between is what we see
And feel, the love between the two of us
Explodes in thousand peaces
Makes the world go round
The wrong way
Still moving and we move too
A dance which we all dance
Is that the reason we are looking for
To move together
Or is it the loneliness we are seeking
But trapped in bounds not chosen
A prison or garden of Eden
Perhaps both we see as one path
But are they really one
Or are we two creating everything
And our confusion is everlasting

As long as we stay together

Still, which way would all disappear

Yes, we shouldn't have said it
The trees were the trees
And the cloud which comes down
Is just a cloud
But we made it a tragedy for us
All we left behind was abandoned before
We wouldn't have needed to see it that way
A big surprise for us all
A big lie for our life
The great misunderstanding with nature
The complexity and the simplicity
Both will do harm
Nothing is innocent
Everything fights each other
But this is just my view
And looking over my shoulders
Everything is as it should be
The tree is the tree
The cloud simply a cloud
We were making the theatre
For ourselves, nothing else there
Creators we could be called
But without immortality
Without the lost we would be nothing
We are less than nothing

The gap that needs to be filled

We use words

But there is no truth in it, or is this also wrong

Brown stains on white ground
The rectangular shape
Showing the need of geometry
Why not a circle we ask
The edges are too thin
This is a knife
To cut down the living
To make them rest for a while Independent from two dimensions
Like the birds swimming in the sky
Similar to the square but above
Needed to hold the things we created Movement after movement
There is no final goal
Only the present dictates its necessity
An idea of something
Yet not seen on earth
A miracle one said
But it is here, right in front of us
Just touch it and you will see Something that will be till eternity
Ends and will be with you
My dearest friend
Who I don't know
Such as the shapes we created once

The open whole
Constant excitement
Lamenting about boredom
Falling into ecstasy
Going back to where you belong
New place but the same
A paradox you always see
Worlds collide and accumulate
Something different is coming
The self reaches across
Take the helping hand
Even if it's not
Who can tell but you
Fear rises but you ignore it
Too long on this dragon
Long distances you have chosen
But always the same picture
Too much to see
Overlaid with details
Which gives you credit
Now you need to jump
The open whole
Your constant excitement
The Trieb
Something looking for

We can never have.

Behind the words
The movement
Starts your feeling
That talks' to itself
You never hear her
Still you are touched
Like a downward spiral
It brings you deeper
The often you hear the same thing
Always a new beginning
Always the same ending
Always the same beginning
Always the beginning of the ending
Always the ending of the beginning Always always
No escape from this trap
Still you are save
Thinking about the past
About the future
Going deeper
The hidden treasure
Deep inside you
It tells you something beyond words
Behind the words

Moving you

Within the trap

There is no trap anymore

A back that lay on you
Your own flesh that feels you
A pressure that makes you feel Sentences you cannot understand
Always the you, never the me
Going far from each other Nightspeed
Nobody can catch
But you try, we are trying Together forever alone
Still not alone
A bound not from this earth
A torch to lighten up the caverns
You knew it before
But do you know it now
And what will be there
This time it is different
You will see
A new letter arrives
In the dark you cannot read
The fire will make your eyes see
The wish to know
Will hurt you

Will make you suffer

You are prey now

And you are the hunter

Stroke the interference to decay
Everything just falls away
Into drifts that soon be gone
I sit here now all alone
Thinking about you today
Makes me special but I hate
Can't remember anything
Soon it's here and will it bring
What I thought I want now best
Sure this all is just a test
Of the king that watches me
Nobody these eyes can flee
Looking up and looking down
For both ways I will get drawn
Tensions up I can't hold in Crushes anything which is between Looks were full of promises
I don't know what it really is
It tells me stories tells me dreams
I can't follow what is between Door is shut, the wall is hard
Would run away, but not that smart
Have to stay to see it all
This will be my final call

Behind the glasses I can see
Without them no reality
Only blurred lines now to see
A different kind of reality
What actually I want to see Beyond what's called reality
To feel before I need to see
Is what brings me to reality
At costs no one will ever see
The truth behind reality
The darkness which I want to see
It is another form for the reality
But you say that I cannot see
The truth behind your reality
Will question what you have not seen
Two sides of what we call reality
The eyes they make you want to see
But it is not reality
So stop to think that you will see
There is nothing like reality
We will not see what we both see
Two sides of the same reality

A whisper through fine air
Nearly not to hear
Cripples through like fear
Death is all too near Walking down the path
What will be and last
No one can now tell
Does not need to be hell
Can be heaven too
Nothing you have to lose
The wall is being there
You don't need to stare
Calm, you can now be
Feel the end of you
Did not need to chose
A last moment of creation
Before it is salvation
Let it go, let it go

Heaven is a place to sleep
Losing everything to keep Spirit less than resting sheep
Who is that you want to meet
Into the nothingness you want
No more dreams that will you haunt
Nothing that you ever launch
But soon you feel the thing you punch
Blackness is that makes you dark
Together now you have the mark
Life is more with both of you
Brings emotion, brings the fruit
That is new and loud as hell
Soon you see that goes so well
Then you are able, so you tell
Peace is something that all sells
But is it good to dance to strings
Was not something deep within
That could fight what darkness likes
Not too difficult to stay so bright
Puppet now because your wish
Was something different than a gift
That poisons you and makes you fear
Soon everything will disappear

On their own the smile will stick
Makes their faces turn to sick
Don't you know that they don't care
What is minus fights not fair
Drumming codes you hear from far
What was written in the stars
Better things you would have chosen
But you like to much the roses
Thorns will cut you deep for sure
There is no such thing as cure
Movement goes around the worlds
Making anything that feel to hurt
Most don't know what lies within
Being free is such a sin
Systems will make you to a machine
Will not feel anything within Skies are red the clouds will touch
You don't want what you can't touch
The finger is the point on you
That will make all to something blue
Another pencil lies ahead
Crap it you before it is too late

Behind your dreams it falls apart
It drifts away into the dark
It makes the sun look like a hole
It will swallow us all
Behind the curtains I saw through
In middle age the demons truth
Faces shown what life is about
Now everything below a cloud
Rain what seems you hear so far
But who will know what we were part
It makes me shiver, makes me cold
It makes the will a sign to hold
But dreams are strong even they died
We all don't want to lie
Not again, and again, we see it now
And saw it also once before
A kind of art which can be sold
For those ones which are now so old
But where is the door
Where is the key
Got lost within this misery
But one hast to start the journey again
A word will make me strong and help the pain
Got lost but I found help
To get through this hell

Or was it heaven, we already in

My own words, my own sin

Blurry lines, I can't tell.

The real exists inside my head
What was alive is now just dead
Seems that everything will fade away
If not taken from the shades
Lifting up into the sky
There is no reason to ask why
When you feel that you will fly
Full of water, less than dry
A cloud that makes the white
A walk into the light
Something you and I will like
Sun to see is way too bright
Jumping between the difference
What you are is emergence
Like you see through a big lens
All the worries actually just dance
Their own rhythm their own rhyme
What is them will not be mine
Something between those lines
The soul will be like the sunshine.

A deep path the wind here blows
Makes me hungry of the world
But without eyes you notice nothing
Just feelings and a sense of innocence
The black will turn to white
The white will turn to black
Beyond the voices their motion excels
We are not one we are not three Something missing in me and all the things
That makes the world go round
Step by step you cannot explain
Still the story will be made by us
A chaos that reigns with all decisions made
What lies behind and before
Equally confusing as it should be
The norm is just the ice
This makes all disappear
The decision made we live with it
An early grave or a mothers' tomb.

Once was small and now it's big
I don't know on what you stick
Bring the speech that makes you lick
Walls are strong and much too big Criticizing what is here
I just simply don't want fear
You will not get any tear
That for me is pretty clear
What are you is too damn small
I will stay here after all
Been alone and no big deal
What I have you cannot feel
A spirit that is with itself
Going outside from its shelf
Not for yet but what will come
Be surprised on what it found
Who will be deciding then
The future is my only friend
The past will come again real soon
I don't want to wait in groom
Now go away can't get anything from you
You stick by me like you are glue
But I found a way to make you shut down the rage
It was this page, it was this page.

Wishful thinking I guess
Plays the part of my flesh
Going around to see me
Watching, drowning, I bleed
Trustful my soul must now be
Only thing left is me
Don't need to actually flee
Inside the life like a tree
Looking no more what I need
Wanting the water to drink
Within the dirty sink
I used since I was born
I know that I have sworn
Not like you, not like you
But I am now what I hate
This seems my fate
But things are different now too
Not staring into the blue
The red like the blood makes me boil
It is like a new soil
I will rise down deep
Don't know myself anymore
I want to keep
But lost it along the way
Did I already died

Don't know now

A dream I had once dreamt
Never to be seen
Again I want it
But there is too much shit
In the way I have to think
Cannot find the link
To what I was and what I have become Now only thing to see
Are fading memories
Don't know what to do
Feeling goddamn blue
All the time that past
Nothing built to last
Not alone but still so lost
The rise too high too much the cost
Blackened what I saw
The animal give laws
But I have to obey
What the others say
I knew once it was said which kind of sign
I think it was that
I can see I'm going blind.

The hell is transparent for me
Nothing like I wanted to be Nothing left of me no more
Only hate that really scores
Burning in this pit of blood
Everything I lost she got Wondering what went wrong
Going false so goddamn long
Lying in my bed and die
Sure it's gone after a while Before it happens I will never smile
All my treasures lost before
Cannot find them anymore
Sure I will be zombie like
As my heart already died
Now only the flames I just see Hating what I used to be
Will not fall to misery
The gate through hate will be my key
Why, what for, I do not know
Tiers so cold they turn to snow
Hell is cold with all these flames
Nothing left but my own shame.

Kisses kisses in the sky
I feel alone don't ask me why
All the things I wanted to see
Only in my memories
Drives me crazy drives me cold
Can't delay till I am old
Once declined to sell my soul
But do not think that this was bold
Greater treasures I have seen
Stay between the worlds within Cannot start were they begin
As I said this was my sin
With the distance in my heart
Everything I built will fall apart
Now I only love which makes me sick
Thought for long times as my trick
But it turned me upside down
Now I am my own sad clown
Wanted to laugh but did not learned
Every of me was once burned
Now the flames are within me
As I said this is my me
And what you see and here today
Already started the way to decay
I tell you now but you don't hear

Before myself I disappear

One was saying with knowledge of too much wealth

Sometimes I can see right through myself.

Oh I know what you waited for
The sparkling tinkers through my head
Don't you know what I had seen I am becoming News as old as the world it came from
Your angels will not leave you
As you have such a despaired skin
Nothing to be touched
Nothing to be loved
Everything to be hated
Blindness, you whore to your own love
The system is you but you closed it
Endless spirals of not end with a beginning
So what you said in your flat
The clothes clean as your dirty secrets
Makes no fun and does not laugh about your own lies
Probably cries a lot but my tears are like the sea
I am swimming in and try to reach land
But you are no part of this picture
You are everything in me
And so I hate my sorrow as well as the one it caused
But I loved and this is my fault
No excuses to be made only thing left is to hate.

You take command and I do what you said
Sand runs through time
Your will gives pain and punishment
A small feeling of you can make the world go red
Seen thousands of times
One is an island
One is an island he said
Was once so alone like an island
He said that once he will be like an island
The hate made him once like an island
Once the island make him fell hate
He was the island but once he was alone
The island was alone
He was alone, so alone
Like an island he felt and once he was alone
Thinking of hate like an island he said
Remembered forgot to go once were the island was seen
The hate remembered him to go once the island is seen
He dived through the sea once to the island of hate
Thinking of a feeling that once was like an island but hate
The island was alone
The island, but once he was alone
Once the island made him feel to hate
It made once the island

It made him like an island

He will be once like an island again

Alone like an island

One in a thousand times.

Going down by my master
He teaches me unchild
Loves me thereafter
Drifting bodies so you search for Flying but not yet with this notion
It was back then
Once you see it my way
Ending to the flood again
A big mistake
So I run too far to come along
Like one word could kill
But you know it for sure
Just different, not to be understood
So burry me softly
I keep this part were sand rains down my tomb
You don't' know if he can be saved
So my heart is decorated like a grave
Looking at me it is going the dark zone
So tomorrow depends on me
All I want to be is something different
No words can tell
No feelings will show
Out of control
Like the dragon and the snake
Just with no confidence in heaven, but were else ...
