

Finally we ruined ourselves

51-15

Finally we ruined ourselves
The memories of the past
They did last
At the end, we both now understand
We have
Slept all the years
We all kept our fears
Hidden
But they were there
We should have cared
But we did not
Still it lurked
I saw it
In my dreams I thought I solved it
But it solved me
We couldn't flee
We are trapped
Inside a glass
Looking from the outside
No way to pass
The wall
That we installed
That we have called Freedom
It is gone

And now it is here
It knows no fear
There is only the brutal reality
It fucked me deep
Destroyed us as it was planned
No need for a helping hand
Anymore
No excuses to be made
From our side
I lose and it celebrates
The damned spell
I can tell
Now
It has taken the price
On the throne it spreads the truth
All I said was lies
Still I believed it
I could not keep it
To me
Said now no
I bow
Down
Lay down
We recognize
It is the winner

It is the sinner
Stronger than me
Stronger than you
Stronger than everything
We could not win
We cannot win
And now I am dead
It celebrates
That I am dead
That you are dead
The spell I swear my words will raise hell
But only my hell
Made by someone else
I am not its friend
It makes my end
We've tried sitting in out
But what my thinking made
Was only other demons that again celebrate
Now, no clear head anymore
Body is broken, the soul sour
Now sitting on my chair
Trying to put the pieces together
In illustrative dreams and words
To the world
But can tell nothing no more

Killers of words, no words anymore

I wanted to be a door

We wanted to be a door

But can't do this anymore

To me

To you

So set us free

No more ideas

Only fears

Leave me I said, but you will rather destroy me

Got the idea from the family of families

All being a tragedy

All what's missing is here

Always the rotten, always the scare

Haven't chosen but it is there

What is going on I couldn't care

Less, I confess

It is not fair

But we are not fair either

Are we

What do we keep

Slowly whispering the truth

It is in the head

It is dead
A carcass
Humiliated bodies
But hear
I can hear
It is there
Far far away it is there
You can't see it
But it will affect you
And me
It screams not
It is here
Breaking the bones
Breaking the soul
No, it is far away
Still it feels at it stayed
Forever
Near to you
A whisper now from him
Die, you worthless rat
Die through the spell in your name
Die and die fast
You should not last
You are nothing, as I am nothing to him
I wanted to fly, but even cannot swim

Through the ocean
But wait, here is my bride
I will make her hide
From you
I will take her pride
I do not have any pride
For you
I am the wolf, satisfying for you to see
Not you but this is me
Much stronger, you will never have this hate
To kill the son to obey to the fate
I trust in you that you cannot be as me
I make the cast, I take all which is free
And lock it up
Your last cup
Of happiness
Wear the dress
Of the woman, not man
You should be dying, I give you a helping hand
I give you what I want instead
There is no escape from my song
There is no escape you will do it wrong
As I did, as I did
Could not see it, but as I did
As no reason whatsoever

Long forgotten, but it gets better
Train your little body and soul
This is me who has you under control
And now I will crush your heart
You were thinking I left
But I was always there
From the very start
Eaten you and all that you are
Is the filth which comes out of my chest
Break you like glass
Be the worst, never the best
Decades die, I want you to die
I want you to crumble I want you to give up
My lies are strong and all I forgot
Is still in my hands and so you are and will be forever
You wanted to be smart, you wanted to be clever
But you played yourself
The hate is mine
What you can do is living by the swine
What you can do does not matter anything to me
I am the door, I am the key
I am the everything you are
You wanted to run but you have all the scars
You have all the me, nothing is you
Even the opposite is finally true

In me
To be yours, there is no happy
End, you see
Never was your something, never was your friend
Never was the one who could give you advice
Nothing you got from me, still you will pay the highest price
I am the greatest I command you to crumble
All the streets even path still you will stumble
This is my will, this is my wish
Devouring you, will give you my kiss
Of death, of pain and sadness
The only thing for you from me is my sadness
And don't be fooled I am the end
Nothing comes afterwards, nothing will stand
Before me, after me, I take all life
Finally, See! I still will survive
And you will die, I promise you so
Not in the driver seat, not in control
Going down the road to the cliff to the sea
It is all not you, all is just me
Jealous all the time
Jealous what is not mine
Jealous for the living and the dead
Jealous about my enemy and also my friends
I hear you, will look somewhere else, still near you

Where are my dreams, not where is your hell
I heard you loud and clear
I forgot you long time ago
What is now mine is not what I wanted to know
What I wanted to know is quite different to yours
The question relates to what is worth living for Worth dying for
You have not moved
But we are moving now
All this battle for nothing, but not anymore
But still anymore, you have no control over me
Did you not listened, you cannot see
You have no eyes but mine
You have no mouth but mine
Speak in different tongues and still I am you thousand more than yourself
There is no escape there is no escape from hell
Never was, did you not read the signs above the door
There see all the words you wanted to say
But you can't, you can't you have to obey
You have to make choices but all choices are mine
You can drink water you can drink wine
You can eat bread or the best feast
I am the one, I am the beast
You do not see it but you can feel it
I am close to you, don't speak anymore

You will die, you already lost your little wars

Again

And again

Again

I was going through eternity but you only lived some hours in here

What your worst nightmares are, I do not fear

Anymore, you will be my door

I will crush you, by the way, have already done

You have lost and I have won

Do you think it makes any sense writing it down

Do you think it make sense that you try rhyming a song

Do you think anything you do will make any good or do any harm

You little sucker, I showed you my charm

You died by my hand, already a long time ago

Only the skeleton, full of sorrow

Is there, which you call yourself

I laugh

I am fat and rich and on the throne of the few

I am just ending it now

You did not knew

That I can now

Now you will see how cold is the snow

You will see what happens when you betray your soul

You thought you won, but was always my call

And what a call, all in
I start, I begin
You hear and do what I am saying
Better stop hoping, better start praying
Because I will kill you, don't get this wrong
But first I want to make you suffer, make everything undone
The prison is mine you are my slave
You thought you are strong you thought you are brave
But you achieved nothing
I just want to make you fall
For a long long time
Just wanted to make you crash against the wall
Full speed
Didn't you see
It was me
It always was me
In everything you tasted it was me
From the beginning to the end it was me that you couldn't see, still cannot see
And after you lived now so long
I have you now
You started to fear, you don't wanted to be the clown
You mixed yourself up, but don't worry I will bring you to the level you should be Down in the whole, yes, you should feel how small
To me you are, you are nothing, I only say die
You should die now, this is no lie

There is no escape from me, I am your hell
Anger and pain is the story I tell
To your bones which are mine, they are now inside you
Destroying the body, your time running up, running through
To the ocean of tears
Deep in the sorrows
Drowning forever
No words to say
All feelings
Made
Because of you
Lost again before I found myself
Killed again, before I could start living
We were so wrong
Betrayed in the very end
Thought to win while we were losing
Now the carcass remains
Over the every and all
No words to tell in this sea of feelings
Like a grave but still not the same
When I fought
You left me alone
I left you alone

With the devil to dance
This was no fun
This was no equally balanced
Act as the one
The boss against the ant
The mountain against the sand
The sky against gravity
The song against the word
A devil word, a devil tale, a devil cast
Can't see it anymore
But the feeling never left
I hear it whispering
The truth was always told to me
But I needed to be blind, I do not wanted to see
And still I saw
Still we saw
The flesh, so raw
A story without a happy end
I forgot everything but it rampages still
I still see how it feels
I am flesh, but it was steel
Wanted me to die
Wanted us to die
And so we died

I forgot that we died
I lived but I was a corpse
I sung, but with the wrong words
I am in this cage
I need to break
But I broke instead
He was innocent, he was mad
And he gave me his madness
Die by the name
This is the fate I select which is like I am
I was
So are you, now, no escape from reasoning
Without reasons, so feel my hate
But I don't know why it was my fate
Just feel my hate
And we started to love it
We needed to start loving it
There was no other choice but to die
The cast too strong and we did not knew the why
No one answered our questions
Nothing was there to be strengthened
My will not to do
So I sank into my tears
Till my tears filled the bottom
And the ocean appeared

We dissolved in the fear
I was born out with the anger
But the anger was just here to kill me again
Kill us again
Again
And again
It was not my friend, I wonder why I felt
It, the other way, maybe I wanted to stay
Maybe I wanted to believe
That something of me was real
But reality is the dead
Ones
Not perfectly balanced
With vengeance
Only words but truth is still spoken
From the ones who are broken
Deep down, deep down
Below the ocean of tears
On the ground
Where no words can be found
We singing the song
To be free from the fall
Flying and crawling

The chains: You have to do it
I heard the voice
The top of the system
The grease
The sea of tears
I don't say the word
Can't be solved
Tears me down, makes me drown
I could not see
As out of it came hate
And this hate we celebrate
But it took turns
Now I am the one who burns
Now the spell has won
Makes me regret on what I have done
I was so very wrong
Was so weak but thought that I was strong
It made me dizzy, it made me blind
I wanted power but fell behind
The trap was open
Jumped in and thought it was my power
But all gone sour
Long before

I realized
A carcass here, no soul there anymore
Living but all was just a dream
Within a dream
Nothing was as it seemed To be
No land of the free
But after all the hate
That made
Me, I am looking down
To the bottom of the whole
And see a truth behind
That I was too blind
To see
That there are no words
Not I but a We
Only the curse
Only the victim which is me
Us, our stars
No one could have warned us, I could not leave
Never can left, there is no way out
Going deep, forget the mouth
Forget the door
Forget the room
All was coming to me too soon

Deep down below

Again

Again

And again

Where everything is cold as snow

It is dark, is dead, is full of regrets

And above the sky

I thought I asked the why

But now I know

It is below

It is the feelings that made me feel

It made me different and I am not steel

I am flesh and words

And nothing else

The words have stopped, so get me some help

We were betrayed I know now

Don't ask the why, don't ask the how

It was not me from the very start

But I was thinking it as a part

Of me, but now I see

Nothing of me is there anymore

Nothing of me in this store

All biased, all taken by the final truth

Was not leaving the room since my youth
 'Now the ghosts that haunted me
 Were so blind, but I wanted to see
 Them, as friends but they tricked us hard
 Now I am at the very start
Was at the very start from the very beginning
 Started singing
 Forgetting everything already again
 And then the wheel all started again
 This is why we all make these words
 A warning for all, that there is a curse
 Made us die a long time ago
 The sea of tears is showing the now
 Is showing the past and future time
 What's in my soul is not just mine
It's just a gift from the ruiner who does not care
 It wants our death, we can't compare
 His wish was mine there was no choice
I could think different but there is another voice
 The last words it said
 I cannot speak
 So I am chained, so I am not free
And while I am running down the road
 The idea came to me
 No, it cannot set me free

But deep down below
There is something else
Maybe the first
Which can't help itself
It is the most frightening, indeed
It is the fear
The primal fear
To Fear to tears to jealousy to hate to
The bottom of the ocean
The salty water
Oh the birds and stars high above
So different, so sweet, so hard, to get
I can't, oh, hate
Let me forget
The fear
I
I am
This cell
This arrow
This sorrow
So swallow it all
The words, the tears
The inner fears left us undone
Now I am alone, with you now gone
I wanted to be, but not with a heart of stone

Not with the fire of hell in the eyes, not as an fallen angel in disguise
Full of lies that all hate myself, the cross in machines stuck out
In the hole that makes everything to be stolen again, my friend, the end

But it is not

Just that there are no words

No curse

I wanted to find

But now I found

What should one do

The system starts above us and makes us move

Locked and unlocked

From below, from above

Still so much luck

Still so much to thank for

But how

We simply don't know

We simply forget

We simply assume

Everything is us

But there is the end of both sides

There are two stars

Between are all lines

And somewhere there is you

There is sometimes nothing you can do

And still you were not taken yet

No misery and no regret
Misery and regret
All is perfectly in place
These are no corners, there is enough space
To do what you are here for Nobody knows
But you, can you define it
While you cannot revise it
There is a view to the others
To your sisters and brothers
And beneath all which is you
There is a whole other world which is true
And all takes part with you
And also you
Will take part in them too
A soft breeze, reminding you of something
And sometimes it is not a lie
Sometimes the verdict can be made even if you are living a lie
There is much more out here
One does not have to be always scared
One can sometimes feel lucky
And so should we Sometimes
When the time is not mine
It blows through the wind

I can feel how it is rising
But not today, today the anger should not prevail
I am stepping in the boat, I will sail
To the north, the south, the east and the west
If I do not know the other side, I cannot be the best
And after all, everything is just a test
And outside nothing matters less
And inside nothing matters more
Than the view inches that open up the door
For me to feel
But there is no escape
But there is understanding
What you want to forget
From where it is coming from
And if you want to go with it
Or trying to see
Simple fact
Everything you believe is wrong
Good starting point to start to talk
Good starting point to start a walk
With you
With me
Wherever it has to go
Whatever it has to show

A distinction needs to be made
About what was said
You need to be afraid
Too much to take from
So starting to run away from
But there was nowhere to go
Pain started, so you now go with the flow
But there is the abyss
In front of you
We don't see what is in it
But images spin it
Trust your guts
It is a lie
It wants revenge
It wants to make you cry
You make yourself cry
The anger, the hate
You don't know the why
All thoughts disintegrate
Like a fog you can't see nothing
Well, should you not start laughing
But there is nothing
Anymore
So you build your own soul
But it is build on quicksand

And soon you, again, understand

Again

Again

That there is nothing you can do

Always misery, always blue

So you try to fight back

But something already snapped

You are already dead

Someone else celebrates

It is not you but the other

Like sister, like brother

Now a part of you and your soul

But you have no control

You want to get rid of it all

But all is you and you are the ones who falls

It is gaining momentum and now

You see what he has done

And there is no safe place

All has been taken away

And with this fear that you have

You try to look for the brave

In you

Answers are sleeked to gain control

But again, no more soul
But again, you take the fall
And all you see what is left of you
A tiny bit not even true
The first and foremost to be done
Agree that you failed, and he has won
Agree that you are now dead
Agree that this is so sad
Agree that it makes you so mad
Agree that it wants to break
Agree that you break as well
Agree that this is its spell
Agree that nothing can be done
Agree that it has just one
Agree that what is left there
Is vulnerable and scared
You do not know the way out
You can cry or just shout out loud
Whatever you do, you don't know
Turns his back and once you saw
That he is strong and you are weak
There was no fight, he was just a freak
Which took it from you
Crushed it down, now it lies below
And all the tears that you shed

It was no choice but your fate
But there is one thing left to do
Which makes all things again good
He should suffer in pain
He should know that you are afraid
He should crumble under your feet
Caused so much misery
That you have on your back
So heavy you cannot stand
So deep below, can't comprehend
But what I now understand
Is that our way was so wrong
A great mistake, now it is gone
But something else I have found
No words so I cannot put it down
But all the landscape I can see
Even not real still is the key
First of all, the spell I can't break
First of all I will give it away
To the ones I love, to the ones I care
But not all of my nightmares
Will go through it anymore
There is something outside that is strong
That is also by my side
It takes away what I can't hide

And what is left on the surface
And what is left in disgrace
I give it back to you
I first give it back to you
A clean break of one key element
The name will disappear as it was your friend
But it is not mine, I am innocent
And you are the murder, not a friend
I am the victim that's pretty clear
There is no way to make it more clear
Whatever I do, it will be wrong
But this secret I now have found
All the feelings that I have felt Betrayed the way, that I have went
I remember back, that was my choice
That all I say, is in your voice
No way out, already dead
And I stand before my own grave
The cemetery is well packed
With all the curses that made them snapped
But I will not build another one
Your heart is cold, just like a stone
Oh yes, I lost, and you won
But no more hate, that I have become
I try to see, I know I failed

Will fail, again, and fail again

Again

Again

Will give up, so as you wished

But in a different kind of kiss

Will select the wrong, I know I had

Still no other option as to be brave

Because I am so full of fear

And you are also standing so near

And also I see what you are

Now just a victim, tomorrow a star

You chose to be ...

To be free

With or without me

It is standing there

I am scared

His wish for my death and everything around

His hopelessness and bound

To chains, not mine, but gave it to me anyway

While he is making my own grave

I see it but these chains are yours

This prison while it's full of doors

I cannot see, I cannot see

Going blind, but away
Lost everything
Still here to stay
My word to you
All that I could not keep Because of your deep
Hate, now you celebrate
Living a carefree life
While crumbled down
I drowned
In the fear
You wanted all, also me, to disappear
But you did not disappeared, you are still here
And I got your wish, got your kiss
Of death, I died, yes, already dead
And in my dream it makes me sad
Standing before my body lying in the grave
You made me to it, you coward why did you not killed yourself
No, you needed to share that everyone is dying
I believed when you were lying
Only you needed to be dead
There was no need to I should fade away
To break the spell
To get out of this hell
Well

The secret is not too far away
I will go and you will stay
But I am thinking within your trap
You made a bet
And you won, now you are shining like a sun
Like a wolf has won and eating the carcass
You and your jealousy are like twin brothers
Can't give it back, I lost, I know
Now deep below all feelings like snow
But they were not always so, once they were hot
Now nothing but demons inside
No more pride
There, see, is the strongest of them all
Makes him tall when making small
Now he is the tallest and the oldest Without mercy he crushed the youngest Now all I wish to you is death
You killed us, now I want revenge
You wished, and it became true
We have no chance, but now it's not only you
A step away, it is not me
But someone else has the chance to be free
And let them go, I'm looking back
Of all the killing, of all your threats
Lie on the ground, there is no bed

Where I could ever rest my head
Throughout my whole life I have cried
And so afraid from all your lies
Instead
Was not my fault
That you always felt so small
With more love to me, you would have seen
Not the end, but a begin ing, now all your demons are in me
I am now blind, truth I can't see
And all my songs must stay inside
But there was something we could find
Maybe still wrong, but close enough
Deep down below, now in the stars
No excuses that I can accept
I am only fear, I am so dead
To break the chains, I do not know
But I will live in what you have showed
To me it's everything but you better don't think
You killed me, let that sink
Should I forgive as long ago
But see me now, it makes me crawl
No, never I will forgive, your spell on me
There is the victim, it never can be set free

And still the dreams punish the soul

Again

Again

And again

Was so innocent, you out of control

Your hatred and fear brought me down to my knees

I did not know before but now I can see

Did you have seen it

No, but you felt it

The fear, the fear from the murder

Like a plane that goes down

You have no control

Still will kill you all

That is the fear, not dead yet, no

But he wants your heart to be cold

And maybe now you know

Right in front of you your killer

Look in his eyes, he's the killer

No feelings, just see his wish to you

But the spell too strong, no standing for you

You are crawling, lying down before him

He demands your soul, he is the fountain

That gives all what he wanted

The house you felt save right in front

Was put down
So soon, you still not know what it means to be save
You are still alive but live in a grave
Instead of a home, a grave
Who would feel save
If trapped, no escape
The fate
For me and you
But then again, you are alive
You should not be in there
You should not die anywhere
You should not feel the joy when you forget
You should not feel all the regret
Because
It was not me, I was blind, but you taught me how to see
The nightmares that cover my soul
Should be yours, you had no control
The crumbling down, the destruction of myself
Yes, I didn't knew it but now I can see
For a short time
The big mistake I made
That you are far away

Again

Again

The final crush, the hate

It was not the answer, where I was going wrong

At to the wrong moment right, at the wrong moment wrong

I believed in something

Felt secure

But you where hiding, laughing deep inside

Now you are here

Now there is the fear

Now only fear

Let it sink

Let it try to have control over you

See what it did

See how strong it is

Stand still

Do nothing

Don't fight back

They ideas you have will again break your neck

Sooner or later

Shake like a leave

All lies, don't believe

In yourself

Don't believe anything
It's a trap
Killed you and now wants to finish it
Reading the old lines
Appearing like vines
At the end there is you
Standing, depending Reached once for your hand
To help, but you sent Me deep down below
All sorrow
In this whole
I had to keep it
Without seeing it
Just feeling it
No dealing with it
No cause for the manifestation
There was no hesitation
The demon took what was there of me
It scared the hell out of me
It transformed me
You must die, his wish all so clear
It is your destiny, have all the fear
I wouldn't wrote it down if you were not here

But you are, you never disappeared
And all the long nights I remember now
You were the one who was standing tall
And I was against the wall
And as you were taking the next step
As you now wanted to collect
Your price
And well, you maybe succeeded
I fed
You
All the time
And what I was thinking, was not mine
It was yours
You opened and locked all the doors
To the supposed destiny
I was to blind
To afraid to see
But your sword reached
Your will to kill
And this spell served you so well
Your road plastered with keys
For you

Never believed it was true
Never believed that you had still so much of me in you Never thought that it will last
So long
But it lasted till now
It is incredibly strong
Right now I am so afraid of what you have done
Not what you wanted to do, no
Anymore
In the night
I died long time ago
Through your words and hands
I could not defend
Myself
And you were also of no help
Your failure I should forgive
The witness
Of the death kiss
But it is me who died
And you are still alive
No, also for you no forgiveness
Why should the victim take the fist
Again
and again

No
Your devoured plan
Oh, the guilt of the victim
But it is not me who looks under your kilt
No, I am dying inside
The body no pride
Look how you massacred my body
I could not recognize, it was so slowly
And just because you don't look within
I should take the sin
Don't tell or leave it rest
But there is no rest for this pest
It is there and you were part
Of it
Excuses made you look smart
I know, I don't know
But this step of yours made a show
For you and everybody else
Too clear what is going on
You too are singing the song
For my death, may he never say
May he get out of the way
Yes you make the excuse
But only for you to be used
Which I had to take

I needed to break
Oh, which questions you would ask
Your lies are from the past
To the present
And the future
So that you don't have to cope
With it
So do I need to cry for eternity
As than you don't have to see
But I am seeing it
Was not my fault for feeling it
It was yours and only yours
I was the victim my blame locked doors
So made new ones
But I know where all is coming from
From the fear from you (gore)
Made all skies blue
Didn't had a clue
Still don't have
Bu I will not make a step
At least for this short second
Here is the lie, this was what I now get
This is where I am living in
In

Or are there rocks
So much deeper down below
Only thing I know
It had me, made my mistake
Now I break
Each day after day
But I know which way
It wants me to forget
So it can operate
In disguise
Again
No
But comes with a surprise
And hard
Not direct but indirect
Don't want to be seen
Which means
I don't want to see it
But I have to keep it
And I want to see it
I need to see it
Cannot keep it
It takes turns to my side

Knows all ways how to hide
I hide it, actually I kept the secret
But the mechanics are not allowed to be seen
The line of reasoning
All not so clear
But from the very start it was the fear
So much is clear
Maybe not
From what it came from Moon or sun
Where it has begun
Who said, better run
I am not the one
The proof was made
But it failed
Assumptions across domains
It was all the same
It left, then it came
Again
and again
Just say when
The poison reaches the brain
Ready, going insane
Yes, again & again

Always enemies, never a friend
Hide, in disguise
His lies
Crumble in fear
Footsteps near Signs left
But can't be read
Irritation with no satisfaction
On what happened
But it is out, waiting for the kill
This is real
It has transformed
Stronger, unbounded, born
To kill
His will
No running around
I still hear what he said
Again No I am not the one who should burn
Both of you turned Everything upside down
So you should burn instead of me
But I trust not myself in what I am saying
Maybe just want the memory fading
And then, they are celebrating

Agai-No

Not now but soon

In the darkness, the night without moon

Jumps on me

You don't want to forget

No, you want to forget

But forgetting does not mean not happening

And it happened

It is dependent

With what you are

So close, not far

No peace, but war

Wants to make a score

You don't know what is it for

But there is somewhere a new door

Just made for you

You will take it, why, you never knew

Future first, present second

And last the past

Before and whatever you do

The bad or the good

It makes the decision for you

So no escape whatever you do

It is the first and all builds on this ground

It can be loud or without a sound

It can be lost, it can be found
But no escape
It will never go away
As it is real
As it makes you feel
It is the reality you can't ignore
You are trapped, you always use his door
It is essentially you, the core
Which calls and you crumble and fall
Makes you believe
Without only the wall
It is deceived
Caused the illness
Contagiousness
Like meningitis
His will is everything
And in his everything you are staying in
But means nothing if not down below
Down in the whole
Tears will be the indication
Where it does you want you to go
Tears due to the fear
Is the proof to be near
But still high above
As words tell only about the fear

And words without feeling are nothing
Feelings can decide the words
But words never the feelings
I would have left it this way
But now
After
I tried to avoid those things
I try
But I can't Escape from the reasoning
Takes my mouth down
Who has won
He
Not me
The feelings make me kill
Everything approaching me against my will Distractions from a thrill
But soon again the end starts and a new begin
-Ing ends, no chance of winning
Just no acceptance of the feeling
You want to run
Run away
But you can't
Because you can't run away from yourself
Can't help myself

Cant' help yourself
Feeling like one breaks down
He has the crown
So I obey
If it would matter I would pray
But there is me
Here
With my fear
Oh dear
What should I do
We have no clue
It is too strong
It makes everything from right to wrong
All is transformed to all
Biased into a view
I note that all the words are keeping me away
And all the feelings leading the same way
To the thing I am
To the thing we are Hidden in the shades
Where are you and why are you keeping us away
Locked us away
Could not cope with the pain
But we are here now

We will join what you have seen
No ghosts, you need to be in-between
I know you were taken and killed
Betrayed by the savior you thought as your shield
But you fell down, you couldn't be as fast
All I am feeling comes from this past
There, the red snow
Could not ask why, could not ask how
The betrayal occurred
It was not only feelings but words
Repeated again and again
Again
Again
And again
But you don't know it when it began
All memories nicely locked
You forgot
But only words, not the feeling
Only in the dreams there is the keeling
All is biased I can't see straight
What is love, once was hate

What was hate, became the fate
Till all of ourselves had to disintegrate
To nothing and we are full of you
The death of us, that is the clue
Has making strong yourself again
And all the willingness of your surroundings
Makes it not less true
But even more so the case
Throwing me away like waste
Lost everything to taste
Had no time, I am chased
Lost in your maze
It spit in your face
I look at your grave
And I see it is mine
You put me in instead of you
I had to suffer you lived in your truth
All excuses for you make sense
Still I am the one burning in hell
Is there no world for the innocent
Even if not I will not play this game
You deserved to die, not I

Forgotten my fate, forgotten my cry
For help, it came too late
Also for you no excuses to be made
Yes, you want your peace
You think you deserved it
Maybe for the others but not for me
Again, the question I am asking
If you broke my heart why I should be the one who is suffering
And not you, just because you would be suffering too
But you were the one who made me blue
An eye for an eye
I understand it now after all
You are not strong, you are not tall
You are weak but this gave you power
To make me rotten in the ivory tower
Your dreams are straight from hell
At least for me you made it like it, so far I can tell
So going back where I lost myself
Was the time where I could not help myself
Words can be spoken, but feelings have been broken
Desire to protect myself
But in that time I could not help myself

So I am laying down the armor
Laying down the words that would make sense out of it all Going back not feeling tall
Going back realizing how small
I was, he was the cause
Leaving something back
I can't keep track
All feelings so packed in each other
Making me feel that I am their brother
Making it feel that is all in the family
But you made me blind so I believed
Your death wish to all
Made also me so small
That fitted in your world
I should be burned
And much easier to do
If I am like you
If I am believing in the fate
That it would be better to disintegrate
That it would be better to die
But it was all a lie
You made your alibis
But it was all a lie
I should have died

All fault of the others
With the sickness you were her lover
In this war there was no cover
Was killed by the feelings
There was no mother
There was nothing
Only to hear you sing
Sing along the death road
I got locked
Disappeared
From myself
There was no help
But the trick got all wrong
Still you are so strong
In our soul
We have to accept
You made us regret
What I was thinking I am
But you were not such a kind of friend
You did not taught me the way
You made me fade away
And I was looking back
Saw my carcass molested with dark
And now I am running back
Trying to see but all is black

And all get's blurry and unclear
Don't forget the feeling: it was fear
And deep down below the hate rages
It is in one of my rooms, indeed some of my cages
It wants out, it wants also to be free
But why should it devour me
Here see
I am not your enemy
There it is, but I should not fool myself
This is far away and I can't tell
To make words to break the spell
So rage, rage in what you think is necessary and good
I know you want to bring me in that kind of mood
And how powerful one could be
Would it not be fantastic, out of any misery
Standing tall
But we will crumble after all
There is no victory when one has lost
There is no flesh if one is a ghost
How to make out of it the most
We just feel that all will be forgotten
And everything which rotten
In the soul
Will stay without control
But we will not know

Till everything is going down
Again feeling alone
And no help
But no help is needed
All is one little seed
Going down
You need to break
There is nothing you can take
There is nothing you can do
Stay in your mood
It is good for you
You anyway don't have any clue
Of what makes you blue
Of the language of the truth
It is me, soon we cannot see me
I will flee
In the dark
No one but you could follow
But too afraid of the sorrow
Too afraid, I made this for you
Telling you all which is wrong is true
Forget about forgiveness to yourself
You are only a ghost in a shell
I am to you what you are to me
We both are together, don't you see

I will never let you go
You can never make the snow
Go back to water, go to tears
You full of fears
Of me, but I am only one
I am the stone
Who breaks the heart
Who stops the start
I am only the end
And the end has not friends
It is alone forever
No door whatsoever
You think you are smart, but I am way too clever
For you a moment, for me an ever
Quite an endeavor
But it is mine, oh you are only speaking to your own mind
And in your words, I am still your own kind
How can I not forget that it should not forget
How should I not forget all my regrets
It is not possible you are saying
In the sea of tears you are sailing
Never winning, always failing
You decided once no time for denying
It was your choice that there was no fighting
And now you suffer as the victim

Now you are nothing, your destiny to fit in

No need for any killing

You killing yourself with this feeling

You have no chance

You will fight back

Indeed, but you will soon forget

It is too much for you

Someday you are tired and you will do

The step away from me

Your truth

And you will leave me alone

Again

Again

And again

Needed your helping hand

But you are not there anymore

You think, why it is here and not behind another door

I will not give you up

I want more

I want that we both see the sun of the free

I want that we both are the blowing wind

I want that we are not torn anymore

We are one, I just keep telling myself, you are the one

The blindness comes

And you think you are again one
It is so much of a lie
Between us it's over
There is no tie
Because you gave nothing to us at all
But your spell that we should fall
I am devastated now, yes I recognize the lie I lived in
I could not win
I was thinking I was winning
But the second place is never in the singing
It is in everything but the one who did the killing
And before all goes into the dark again
Oh, we lost so much in there
I see, we were scared
I see, I was running away
You could have been saved
Did not know during that time it was possible that way
I know it now anyway
But before that, in all of the old days
I did not know
I had no clue
I betrayed you
The dogs with blood in their mouth were chasing us

I left you behind, you were the last

I betrayed you, now I see

Should have taken your hand

Going to the land of the free

Now I see

I left you behind, was so full of fear

Wanted to save myself, now I see it clear

Ly before me, should have gone under with you

Should have taken your hand

Should have saved you too

But this was a lie, we should have died

Both of us, up in the stars

To be forgotten by the murder hand

This was his plan

Still I am guilty not standing by your side

This is how I lost my pride

This is how I lost my will for myself

I am so sorry that I could not be the savior

I am so sorry that I was running away from the traitor

Leaving you behind, door locked, apparently saved

From the animal that wanted our soul

I left you behind and you were taken

You were part of me and I have forsaken

You, why I have forsaken you
Lost so much by running away
Yes, I jumped over the abyss
I jumped to a room without doors
But it was only me, not with you anymore
I am so sorry that I did it that way
I know we both were betrayed
But during that time I thought there was no other way
So I gave you up, I put you away
Now I have to live with my choice I once had to made
No happy end
Lost more than a friend
Something so close
To me
Us
I gave up
Because of the fear
He was chasing us, oh my dear
The horror it has caused to both of us
You were even more innocent than myself, but you could not pass
As already hurt so much, too slow, no helping hand
I feel so guilty letting you down
Betraying you to save myself

Well, the color turned then to blue
The room lost its doors
Trapped in my choice
Becoming the murderer of myself
Becoming the one who does not help
Even does not help himself
You rather push down the innocent
Oh no, never was a helping hand
For you, feeling so blue
I know now why my heart is broken
It was broken because I survived the bloodlust of the dog
While you were taken, forsaken
At that time I did not know
What we both together had to go through
It was me and it was you Wish I could change the time to make all new But all is lost, the battle over, long time ago
And my heart now cold as snow
Had to sacrifice what is greatest to us all
Now I am stumbling within the cold
Remembering back
My lack
My betrayal

Again

A...

We should have gone through this together

But we never would have had a chance

But still, now and forever

I think that I betrayed my best friend

To let it all go down in the horror

Get devoured, I was getting it too

But you

And I

We both should have cried

And died

Not surviving in this hell

That brought his spell

But you cried

You died

Not me, I am still live

Apparently it seems

I am still alive

But only thing left in this world for me is to cry

Why, oh why

The ocean of tears is not deep enough

To hide the scares

And in this sea the monster roam

Not him but me

Gave up something that I used to be

Now it is alone, long long time ago

Abandoned

Can't hold you down

So come to me

Go with me again

Forgive me my friend

Myself

Two roads were taken

And one has forsaken

The other, my sister, my brother

I don't want another

Excuse

I have been used

To break with you

Now you are mad

What I did to you

Like glue

It is sticking

Words are so small, they cannot fit in

Am I tripping

Am I going insane
All forgotten
Now all the same again
I can't find any sense
Complex interactions are the defense
For the truth to be told
Can be full of fear or incredibly bold
Phone ringed, no one called
Was it me, was it really my fault
It gets too far away, already again too cold
To tell my soul
What is all
I see, them in the shades
Or is it only one, is it
I can't tell
But there is fear
Deep down there is fear
And there is hate
Don't you feel it too
Different reasons but I am like you
You are like me
Don't you see
There is no way out of this misery
The track has been long taken
We are lost in the faking

Time to pretend
From the very first day we descent
Down
And now lost, where am I
Where are you
Why is it here
Can see it but there is still the fear
It is near, so near
It is me, the feeling is me, but I can't see Making shivers running up my spine
It used to be mine
At some point in time
But then there was the crime
I can't feel it
I can't feel it anymore
It does not allow me to see
It is alone, I left it alone, and now it is free
Roaming in my mind
I betrayed you, please bear in mind
And remember the time
I try to remember but it slips away
No difference if I curse or pray
It just don't get away
It is far away

It stays
Under the consciousness
The one and only
I am but a simple man
But I am not myself
There is much more I can't tell myself
I can't ask for help
What was the feeling I felt
It will betray me as I betrayed it
It does not fit
Was my fault and not Still what I've got
Is there
An even if I have to come back haunted
I still wanted
It
It is me
Like a fog, I cannot see
Through
Too dark, too blue
Once too many, now too few
I have a clue
It was me, not you
At the very beginning

I started to keep winning
But I lost you, I gave up you
And now I cannot grasp you
But me is also you
However, separated through Decisions that had to be made
To avoid to fade away
I am like a ghost now
I barely remembering who I am
Who I was
There is a host
I think it is an enemy, but I know it is my friend
It is heaven send, so I am
Both together not enemies but friends
But the words keep falling apart
There must be the feeling which takes the part
Of me
Of You
So I can see
Turn away the blue
When the time starts the tears run down my skin
When the time starts I am still keep it within
The feelings the new eyes, a new way to see

It

IteM

Forward and backward looking

It is spooking

In my head, all in my head

Tell me, show me, I want to know

But there is no easy way out I have to go

Deep down below

Where my words do not count anymore

Where only feelings make the score

Oh let me feel

I want to be real

Within the real

Don't want to steal

You are mine, I am yours

I betrayed you but now I adore you even more

I adore the part I had let to let it go

But I want to see the sun and not all the snow

Covered in blood, no white is here

Covered in blood which is my fear

Covered in cold once it was sold

And now it is free, but I see it is me

But it does not see, I demanded that I keep

It but I gave it away

It wants me to pay
So I pay
There is no other way
To go back to the day
Where I gave it away
At the alter of the many
I separated the family
Of fears and hopes
I broke
My sweet child of mine
It was a crime
Against my own soul
You are out of control
It was due to my tone
I screamed the agony
I could not see
The fine line between the you and the me
I made it into an abyss
A death kiss
A death stranding
I wanted to hand in
I took it out of the water
Dead my dreams and no one to bother
About

Sister or brother
Made no sense
Made no difference
Can't get it out of my head
The music still make turns in my head
Am I mad
Am I too blind to see
I now there is a land of the free
But it is not inside me
It is inside you
But I wanted, I needed to flee
And now it is back
Demanding to satisfy his lack Gave all up
What was once the cup
Of ours, I also devoured
But I will not close my eyes
I try to get into the past
But it is so slow, it is not fast
And how long I can last
In this place
Anyway
I will wait
I see the fate
It is never too late

It is always too late
I am blind to the fate
Anyway
Not my place
Cannot last
At last
My presence is the past
My presence was in the past
At last, the past
Is the beginning
Is the end
Is the beginning and the end
Is both together and still far apart
But I will start
With you
And you will start
With me
And while you need to hurt me
Because I could not understand how to satisfy your needs
It is still me
Who suffers with you
What I can't do
During that time
I could
But now stay with me again

You are my closest, you are me, the same

I now go back where I lost

You

Where I lost part of me too

And were the words stopped

And the fear begun

Into the whole

Into the worm

Into the dark teeth

Into the one who haunts me and makes me feel so miserably

I will keep

By my side

Holding up our pride

Yes, during that time we both would have died

And we died

There was no escape, no way to hide

I tried

And made the decision

That blood is not enough

Without any love

With the curse

With the spell

I can't tell

But
It can tell me
And while I wasting my time
Wasting the lines
With something else
I see that I do not have anything left
To help myself
That the things in us, don't ask for the name
They need attention so that we can bring back all up again
If he takes all time
But was always mine
And yours
So define the something which I am
And which is outside which is the end
To the something above, and also to the something deep down below
What all there is I do not know
I cannot know I don't want to know
I will take again all from my soul
Gets me distracted and I forget
That there are ghosts that I should let Go through to where I am
Make me fear and cold again
I let you do it I want to let you be
By my side, else I am not free
What else could it see

As a side quest I don't want to live
Love and life
It cuts through like butter and knife
Cuts in two where one was once
Was so short but takes so long
We ask: How it must be not being blind
Roaming the earth and seeing everything again
And again
again
And again
Till I find the time
In the book of life
I strive
For
The door
That is locked
Blocked
For me
As I am too blind to see
But you can see for me
Let me see it in you
What step you made
To get through
Was no door at all
For you

To get through

No problem at all

Was not your wall

Was my wall

Was my call

Was my fall

Fault

A damn cold cold

Something in my hand

Going insane

Wanted the fame

For me and no one

Them to blame

Still my fault again

Again

Again

And again

The wheel turning

Again

Again

And again

Each click it makes

And eternity that goes back to the lake

That became the sea
That became me
Desperate to see
But can't see
Can feel
Inside of you and me
The song which was sung
In our beds when we went to sleep
In our dreams
When the nightmare hunted us for being too late
When we woke up
Still not sure if the demons still will take us
When we were awake
Didn't know why and for whom the war
What we are fighting for An even flow
Of crushing waves
All there was, was there to disintegrate
To humiliate
To see the blades
To cut our veins
To make the fate
But I want to forget
You forgot
That there is no blessing in this mess of a clean break

Where the blood comes out
Lake water from a dam
In prison now free but not the same again
And again
Again
And again
Again
I see the wheel turning
Makes my heart cold, makes your heart burning Arrived so innocent
But we were chased away
You can ask him too
Here it is only about me
There it is only about you
You are now here too but I look through
You, tap my shoulder
But I pretend to see a ghost
You are here but it is not clear
It is not clear
Speaks in tongues
Full lungs
Trying to scream
But can't
No body anymore
Only ghosts

But deep under the skin
Where we
Failed so often, now it wants to win
Takes you in, you don't know where it is coming from A hit to take you down
Deep down where it lives
As said, no feelings but words
No words but only the feel
This is what it thinks
And it wants to be heard
It crawls through the dark corners of your mind
Was from the dark corners of the earth
It is the dark, must be dark
But this was your choice
Once, you said
Once, you did
Once, the decision was made
Now I feel again so afraid
Afraid to do anything
Anything wrong
No time to sing
No time for a song
Full of hesitation
No sense for any revelation
Just afraid

Afraid of anything
To not fit
Or fit too well
We can't tell
The journey for the holes
I grab your hand now stronger
Don't let you go
My feeling
My ceiling
Dark in the caverns
Hunted by the demon
Want to destroy us
I survived but it killed you
I survived and therefore I feel now so blue
I feel the wrath
Of taking away his treasure, his cask
Oh well
I still can't tell
Everything gets confusing
Gets blurred
My friend
Everything hurts
Too much my soul
I can't control
I let it in

Finally I let it in
It wants to win
Maybe it means that I will lose
But it is of no use
To keep it away
Guilty feelings always stay
Till the end
Just an enemy, just like a friend
I betrayed
You
Now it haunts me
Only the feeling left
Body and soul have long left
But the feeling survived
Too strong and complex, like a hive
With one which is all
Full control, full throttle
It knows the whole in the bottle
But you can get in Once I left you
But now I stay with you
May the massacre begin
I knew it was not our sin
The demons, two of them, after all
Made our fall

Make us feel so that we wish to be dead
But before that I will stop the regret
There should have been a fighting
A killing
But there was no such kind of winning
Or a kind of liking
The obvious
Head in the stars
From high above
I count the scars
Let it in Let them in
Not our sin, not our fault
They made us feel it, but there is a different world
Anger and hate seen as our salt
But no halt
Just a default
Oh, how could I see
I now only feel
And it gets confusing all the way
I want to pray
But there is nothing to say
I need to do it my way
I need to stay
The demons could have killed us once

Like a castration
A sensation
For the brave
Being a slave
What a wish for me, what a wish for you
But I give it away
The door needs to be unlocked
We need to stay
Still
It is waiting for the kill
Let it try killing us as you tried to kill me
We stand both and look at what they have done
You and me
Are the one
Once so weak, still so weak
But we need to be strong
Strong to be weak
We want to seek
The demon crest
The mess
It made with us
Repeating the time
Before
Feeling fine

Yes

All together, still separated

It

Made me feel

Hunger and hate

Appetite

For what we wanted to hide

I am now like a child

Afraid, so there is the urge to hide

But we ran away for too long

The long worm chased us too long

Now we are itself the thing we feared the most

What did surviving cost

Us

All dreams and all stars

Had to give up all wars

I digged in the dirt and found

My face hidden in the mud

So full of fears

Yes you survived but the fear of you

You can still hear

There is no escape

No, no running away
You paid a too high price for them
We all paid too much for them
Why to pay the enemy, why nothing is left for the friend
Ah yes, the aggression, yes, be aggressive
It was massive
A classic
State
Of
Play
Only we did not knew the rules and now have to pay
For the most
Just stay
With me some more
What does it want to say
To me
To you
A darkness one is going through
To you
Through
Infinite sequences
Sentences
Words
Letters
I T

Meat
Bones and flesh
The brain, it needs to confess
Only flesh
Nothing more in store
Only hardcore
One Trieb
In the field
Searching for flowers which could grow
But still all is snow
May the sun come
Want you come
Make it undone
But not in this world
Where the tongue is curled
As all the emotions fall in place
We realize that no place is safe
Afraid of hate
Not afraid of love
So one-sided you see me
There is something you don't want to be
The key
But you is also me
Feel free, to be me
Don't want to be

So you don't want to

But still a trick

Inside a trick

Inside a trick

We were lost in the cavern long ago

I will guide, you will follow

Don't give you up

Just another imagination

To be a new sensation

For you

But I actually run away

Too afraid

In love or hate

Both together how could I integrate

Differences that made

Me from the start

So, how to give it away

With you

No way, no way

Still also not this way

We both will not stay

We both cannot stay

We move forward, together

Lost you once, hope not again

Again

Again

Like waves going to infinity

Too blind to see

But not too blind to feel

All and nothing

Flesh and steel

Giving birth, making the kill

Oh this dark spot

It has a lot

Of the dreams I can't feel

I won't want to feel

Don't want it to be real

But it is

So different, not the same language I can speak

With you, with the strong, with the weak

Feel, feel where it is going to

Scared, and more scared

Dark the feeling, it can't be real

Surrealism seems to prevail

The language will tell

Or won't

Where is the difference

Between the word and the screams

I realized who wanted to win

Who actually wanted the kill

But you can be by my side now

Art is the link

While the ship sinks

I remember how to breath under water

Just die, all is a lie

An alibi

To fight

To not fight

The secret symptom that causes fandom

Don't fight

Once he lied, once he betrayed us

Is now a part of us, is in the stars

Distant from the stars

But it is here

Already it is here, so fast

It lasts

It comes with a blast

Or with silent steps

It comes to my soul

It comes to your soul

Out of our control

Indeed you don't have control and one wrong move I will make your fall

Yes do it, I want it to feel

Myself

Not real anymore, but so much reality still here, so hardcore

So what else is in store

Which I grab, you grab, we do not find

We cannot find

The Promised Land

The door in the room, a new room

Oh, He'n'rey makes me transparent

Like the bones just that I can't see through

Just the broken us

Just break, its command

Now takes back, always here, no difference

It makes an end to an else

An and to a but

It cannot get stuck

Always a way out

Even if I need to shout out loud

No problem at all

It says

For it does not matter anyway

As the anyway need to fall

As my fault

As our fault

As out of control

Apart from my soul
Still will control
You and me
Differences in differences but no clear shape to see
I think of a cloud
Then I have my doubts
On myself
On my feelings all that are hidden in a shelf
Else
Open free all misery
From the strong
They can be right, they can be wrong
I can run for miles, still cold as a stone
I have lost, he has won
Oh, the forgotten son
Lost in the woods
Oh, the forgotten sister
Lost in the puddle of blood
The plan so sinister
But soon all is gone
And soon all is coming again
Again
And again
Again

The wheel turns
Still always the same
Always on one level sane
On another insane
When do you tell
When she will tell
When it will tell
That nobody can help
There is no friend
There is only pain
But take a closer look again
Where are the winners
Who dig themselves out of the grave
Yes, there is no safe place
There is only the brutal, the ignorance and the misunderstood
If there would be a way, I would Go it to find you
But the fear is keeping me away from reality
It keeps it away from me and you
A door without handle
How could I knew
The fire wants to burn
Strong and without mercy
It burned my eyes, I can't see
There is only the I, no we

Both keep me away to be free
The chains, the old chains
I do not know since when They locked me in
Should I give up
Should the destiny now give this cup
Of sorrow
To me and you
Nothing in myself, it says, was new
All was borrowed
I don't know
I don't know
You don't know it too
We ran through the grass
We ran to the sun
Only us, nothing else
Mountains and stones, climbing, with ourselves
The soul, full of control
Oh, no, no control at all
Still alone
Still together
Like an afternoon, with sunny weather
Sitting on the lake
Drinking wine and making no sense
Laughing, from a joke we were telling

Only giving, no selling
Hand in hand
As a lover, not as a friend
No need for stars, no need for fame
All seemed so normal, but nothing was lame
Then the dark weather came
And with it the chains
With them the fear
For everything, far or near Trying to hide, the laughter came from wide
Wide away
No way to stay, just run straight
Away
But was an easy prey
No mistakes were made
They knew how to take me
They knew how to take us
The lightning from the stars
It hit us hard
Too hard
Couldn't outsmart
It
Not a bit, was and were always there
I swear
I declare

Nothing, just nothing I can
My friend
In this promised land
To make sense
As my chains took the command
A slave without demand
And what it wanted
From me
All following, not to see
Where are you
I search for you so long
You searched for me so long
But can we be so strong
To search for an eternity long
To make for an eternity a song
That you once will hear
And raise the dead
Raise all above our head
Upside down, instead
What would be the way
After we all know
All is left is sorrow
Is that what it was for
The equality, or greater, or lesser, or more
Is this what is in store

For us
The mud, not the stars
Just scares
Running away all day
From the ones who see us as prey
How should it be that way
We all are betrayed
But does not matter now
Did not matter at anytime
It is just us
Uber is just him
Let it swim
Or go down
Drown
The darkness as a save place
But there is something left unsaid
It is under the bed
The monster which waits till you are tired and sad
It will make you mad
With the fear
The fear that takes the energy from there to here
No excuses, just lies
If you crawling or jump up to the skies
High above, to the love
You once had

But who is standing next to you now instead

It said it will see you again

And you see it now, not then

In miracles, mirrors of when

The broken, no rhythm, no rhyme

Just falling behind

But do it, what is in it for the bad

What is in it for the fed

Up

and

Down

Heaven and hell

Break the spell

But how to do it, I can't tell

The spell therefore is unbroken

It cannot be spoken

Of

My love

I fear it so strong

But we all are alone

Still I am here, and I will be here for you

Something is there which keeps our heads from the blue

Ocean tides

Waves

Slaves

Of the water
And wind
The initial sin
Oh please help me within
I will help you within
We are not apart we can be together
Even if we cannot help us ever
It does not matter
The dark words in the ring of fire
The burning desire
Like barb wire
It cuts through skin
Linking
What cannot be linked
To fly or sink
A perspective within
So let it be

Let's see
The knot in the belly
It tells you to sell it
The fear from the aggression

Feeling the tension
Afraid to be strong
So much what could go wrong
Just hide under the rock
Wait, hear the clock
Tick tack
Now out of luck
Just pretending to feel
Too much as so real
Like a wheel
Keeps me spinning
Again
The lines should have blocked
But it cannot be locked
Out
I am losing, who is winning
Words screamed down below
So hot but then also so cold
Once I was told
To die from the old
To live by the young

But who is that strong
To hear the feasting beast
And try to unleash
The chains and doors in the shadow
It makes all so hollow
So what is it for you
And what is it for me
A killing spree
Down in the shaft
No words now
Gurgling
Tears running from the eyes
What is truth, what are lies
No compromise
It wants it all
It wants it now
It is incredible close, yes I know, also incredible loud
Just take it from everywhere
A room to be scared
In a nightmare
I stare
Too tired to see
Too tired it wants me to have
Give up and step in the grave

Even if not it will get to you that fast
Nothing you say will ever last
The cast
A dream without a dream in a dream
Faded memories of what we have seen
Disconnected but still there
I want to break free, but I am so scared
So what we can do now when all else has failed
What is the frame and is it a jail
Bouncing back and forth to your song
Whatever happened, something went wrong
A place it hides from my soul
It is dark and fully in autocontrol
Take up the phone to make up the call
But no one responding I am the one
Receive and responding my own fall
Want to be big and want to be small
All does not count when it gets cold
No escape
No break
Yes
Escape
Break
Free

See, see it closely
Have no fear
Take the darkness, take the tears
Deep, deep down below
We both know
Something is dead but dreaming
Controlling every feeling
Creates the ceiling
Creates the walls and doors
Open the key, the only thing to adore
Is you
It is you
It is blue
It is the clue
It is the one whom to choose
All now all is now
Past, present and future in one big cloud
And all the feelings that tell me so
They try to convince but never show
That I don't know
But all I am is it
We all trying to find what just hit
It
Has
Such a different language

We never heard about
At least we think
But let it sink
It was first
You came second
Something came third
The two are words
But the first was making you feel Making you real
It is real
Don't steal
From the shadows
They are just arrows
Now for me and you
It is so dark in here
We both know the fear
Want to disappear
To have peace
But there is no peace after all
The war was here and nothing to control
It is a simulation and manifestation Synthesizing all situations
From one perspective
The old ones
Want another one you have to be strong

You have to do it at least one time wrong

Only then something could be done

In principal

But it is invincible

We can't fight it

You and me have to understand it

Adventure of a lifetime

It could be yours

It could be mine

The poems are written in verses but we screamed them at a time

Loud

They could

They should

Be

So we think

We are

But just another blink

And it sinks

Down

Down below

To them bones

Yes we're going to die

But should we die with a lie

Inside

It knows, does not matter for all

But ourselves
And ourselves can't help themselves
Still, most important on this level
As what is held in
What we see as sin
But it is no sin at all
A transformation that was once told
Long long ago something that we have sold
It had to be sold
Now it is free and out of control
With decisions now too old
To be new again, but can be renewed Else it tells
The tale of the
Again
And again
Again
Just tell when
You have enough, or we are sad enough
Again
And aga...
No, there is no time
To chose a different state of mind
Could you be so kind

No, it won't work that way
It is strong
You can't fight it, it was too long
There, starred
And still we both are only at the beginning
We are drowning, not swimming
But this is a different fear
It does belong to here
It belongs to the past
And the past will last
To the future and beyond
Till the grave make you to respond
To the question it has addressed
It was a significant test
But this test was so much less
Compared to the others you had Don't be mad, don't be sad
While it is not a fate
It is
The never ending wheel
Pushed during birth and stopped when death came to fill
Again
And again
Again
And again

Generations of if and when Linked, let it sink
And come back again to the surface
The furnace, burns the what is it and why
A cry from far away
Stay away
But it is close
Too close for comfort you think
But let it sink
Deep, deep into you
The blue ocean and the sky
Down below and up very high
Soon got tired
But still on fire
A journey back
To see the lack
Which causes anger and aggressions
Fears and depression
I think with you, you think with me
Maybe we are both too blind to see
Keeping the hands on the other eyes
To avoid all the lies
In words, in pictures
But there is a frame
A room a door which invites me

Let it sink
Let me in
But somehow it is locked
The doorbell like a knot
In my solar plexus
Like a fetus
Far, far behind
Think back in time
The myriads of passages from here to there
It stares
It stares too
A different thing, not you
But still you
An indifference you think
But let it sink
Let it sink
It is the symbol
It is the word
It is the everything you never heard
But felt
Deep, deep inside
Repetitions come like a surprise
You are wondering about it all
Is it big, is it small

Is there a decision to be made
Can I serve the purpose against the hate
 Against the fate
 Against the confusion
 The intrusion
 The fusion
 Into something new How new
 When it is so old
A different language it was told
 To you, to me
To all the visions, it was used to be
 And where it stops
 The words reappear
Just feel the anger, pain and fear
 With me, no other way
 Still we will lose the way
 Nothing comes as a surprise
 We all want to rise
 To the sky
To see everything from above
 Words so unclear
 What is love
 What is desire

What do we admire
The reckoning, swings
To another place
Fantasies that make the way
To me and you
Now we all just look through
The mirrored glass
At least we do
It
With you
And me
No way to see
Where one is free
Closed rooms and chains
To keep and hide the pain
But let it rain
As it wants
Keeping it all in as it counts
Where control can't be found
But created within
The making of a new thing
Only thing
Ours

Power

That drive the below and the above

Up to the stars

Our dreams will last

Until the new dawn

When we all know what is going on

What there is, what there was and what there will be

What can be found or will forever be a secret

Or we just make a jump to another horizon

When all words need to stop

All feelings come to a halt

Bringing gold

Treasures

Beyond measure

To measure our way

Asking us

Do we still want to run or do we finally want to stay

Where we started

Where it started

The loss

or

a gain

and a gain

and a gain

a gain
see my friend
What the new showed us
Due to our thirst
Something came first
Then the second came
It was
a gain
and a gain
a gain
and a gain
Till all that was lost
And all that nothing which was left
Became the first
For us
It was there
We are staying here
Wondering about the fear
About the lock
About that horizon which could not be crossed
Seems we were lost
But this was just an illusion
Asking the guard
To get in
How stupid not to see we were outsmart

The language is not ours and we still try to talk
But it does not understand what we want, where we want to walk
It just wants all, no way to choose
Make your decision and win or lose
I see the aurora the shimmer the shine
Here is here and what's there is not mine
You became the whole journey too
And all what you think will fit also to be true
Within me
To be guilty, to be free
What it all supposed to mean
Is beyond the words
It is about the pain
A gain
And Again
Pain a gain
Pain
To do this one step away from here
To there
So the sheets will stay white
But the blood and fear will still hide
All
Now from you but not from me
Or is it me who is still too blind to see

Shouldn't we both be too afraid to see

It

So we wish to know the spell

And while I cannot tell it well

And while we reach for the feel

And we think we are going to be killed

It is still the only thing which is real

A free will

With an agenda

But very far

Very far to get there

Try to stare

In the abyss

The death kiss

Afraid to be dead

Always sad

Soon we will regret

No rest in bed

So we swallow that

Idea

That made visible the monster

Oh, loving other

How I miss you

Oh how much you bother me

Still all of us is inside the broken heart

From the very start

To the very end

But no excuses to be made

Or

All excuses can be made

To tell

Why we need to live your fate

From you, there is no debate

The fault is yours, both of you

We had no clue

Of what the reason was

Phenomenology's like reading from the stars

But we do not need stars that make scars

We need

The truth

Does it also need us

One level below and one above

Differently the things we love

Differently the way we communicate

High stakes

But nothing actually fades away

All stays

Till the end

If we do not find

When we have chosen better to be blind

The time when we still could see

What was it, how would it be

To feel

To feel deep

Feel it

It tells

Tells a lot

But want to hide the secrets

Once we have met, but we broke up

Tough luck

Still no excuse

Never was and can be an excuse

It refuses

It chooses

Which other things to let in

Even what was there within

First

The touch

But it was too much

So we looked away

We needed to look away

But now there is no way for looking away

We want, we are desperate to see

With former eyes who saw it that way

Young innocent eyes
Without lies
Only way to see it as it was during this day
Past, present, future
Like a commuter
Going places
One place of all places
A plan of the walk
What was talked
About
What all was let out
When all was going blind
But the dreams make one sleepy
And when the tiredness comes You just can't keep
It
The focus on the goal
Was so big, now so small
What does it matter anyway, after all
It is better to sleep
And don't keep
It
Will do as you please
No need to freeze

It is warm
Like the sun
It can't be undone
It is right, you are wrong
You can be weak, you do not need to be strong
It is all without, you are alone
It is all, without you are alone
Everything which has happened cannot be undone
Forget it, much more fun
It was once small, it will be long
You do not know where you have to take it from
The feet, the bowls, everything you own
It makes you a clone
If itself, himself and above
Synthesizing all into its health
In stealth
Comes and goes
Beautiful and dangerous, like a rose
If you don't care
Makes you bleed, makes you to stare
The fine pedals opening
Teeth, no dream without nightmares
Without being scarred
But the dream within the dream
Is just another dream it seems

It wants to begin
Another cycle
You as the decipal
Me as the decipal
The unforgiven
You could not living
Part of the meat
A perfect fit
With you who do the non-optimal control
Felt as the soul
But so much more what is in store
Can't be detected easily
So I run hastily
Through the shelves locking at myself
Looking at me and you
Trying to make sense about it but actually have no clue
Cannot see it
Truth behind the corner
Have to feel it
No straight line will bring us back
The curve is straightened by you
While your mind
Still is blind
As the causality is not in this world

The tongue who speaks the truth is curled
Two very different worlds
Two very different languages heard
But not undisturbed
Unheard of the many voices
Claiming the prizes
Each step towards to an end
Oh the fear inside our bones
To be the one
To be like a stone
Or the fire of love
Burning deep
Burning away the destiny
Burning away what we used to be
Don't know what caused it and where it is coming from A stepping stone
Of the ladder
Coming later
Lovers or haters
Tell their dreams in their songs
Moon and sun
Nothing went wrong
But now everything undone
The knot away
Still in the belly

I can feel it
The danger that I am dragged away
The price which needs to be paid
The not going away
We all will say
The final word
But two roads are taken and both cannot be taken
One is unheard
Can't you see
They are frightened
The landmarks widen
No place for hiding
For the storm
Torn Apart
Falling
Crawling
Raging
But it is of no use
You get abused
You lose
You cannot chose

Still, we choose

We lose

We get abused

No use in complaining

No use in defending

It is raining

There is sunshine

Both are yours

Both are mine

Binary choices

Binary voices

Where all is

Where all was

Sky full of stars

It is full of wars

Of meanings

Of priorities

While solitude is bliss

There comes at the same moment the kiss

Of death

Alone

Stripped down to the bones

The wretched

Where have we left

The path
Was it there after all
Now feeling so small
But once we were told to be tall
Bigger and bigger
Try to figure
It out
But it is inside
A gain and again
