

I Love You So Much!

51-15

.. longer ..

. longer .

..

In the sky

the worlds we see collide who needs now to hide

there will be no pride

if we chose to fight

the blue and the white

but I need to relax

I need your sex

as I feel so dead inside living my lie

always the same

but no one to blame

I wanted the fame

but came out pretty lame after seeing it all

I do not stand now so tall

I had to see it but I could not keep it lost something I never had now all my words are sad there is just this lack the whole

who swallows it all ( ) my gift to you

the feeling of blue

the feeling of red
I'm not afraid

if I think back

what I lost

long time ago

in the land of the snow

I wrote it down

so it can be found

by me?

you see!

a message was sent with you as the transmitter for you it sounds bitter but for me

for me it makes me free it takes it all and stuffs it together to a cannonball

I make the call the broken telephone will help me a lot need only to speak about me so wish me luck

maybe you can hear the conversation be patient

wait to see what I said the words will make a journey to you

but what does it mean

I don't know for sure

... you waited so long ...

..I know..

Let's go!

I came to the sun

asked to be the one

she said yes

but said yes to all

nobody is small

all are my children

I will defend

the greatest and the weakest link will not let them sink into the void

it is my choice

you will be with me and then you will see

bringing the shine

you could be mine

if you forget the stars

if you see my war

I had been through

now into the new

all so different

take time to spend

it with me

and you will see the light of mine is yours will open all doors

no reason to cry

no reason for asking the why just stay with me just see what I see take back the time

see what is fine

with me

and now with you

make the beautiful come true

you knew

now you know again

I am your friend

don't let me decent you can bend
it the way round

no need for any sound no need for touch

believe in your luck

this second is yours

no more remorse

see it from my side

happiness and pride

no need to hide

no need to fight

let it go

move slow

take your time

feeling fine

the walls collide
free as a kite
just send me a like going up and here I am
yours ever
always your friend
remember this when worlds collide
my first kiss
to you my sight I have given freedom and the will don't need to go for the kill
take you to promised land honey and milk
butter and silk learn my skill I am always there

so no need to be scared anymore

galore

as before

when you are no more still be with you always with you

always will be true

trust

you must

can help you and will

it is my skill

the sun

where I belong

too you

...

thinking

.. I know ..

.. but ..

Everybody is # in its place!

We all came to the moon

we all came too soon

but it was noon

so asked by the past what has been and what will last we spelt the cast

we need to go

the moon will tell about the stars will tell about his light will tell about his fight will tell about his will will tell us why we have to feel this way up on the ladder

it can't get any better but the road ended too soon and now we are in bloom trapped in a casket

into the darkness where everything is louder the founder
the moon
gone too soon but still enough to see our stars

the arrow we point

to blow this joint got it fixed all will be mixed to the exact balance
against the fence
against the wall
we all stand tall
to our dreams

to the darkness of the moon

to the light
that came too soon inside
the womb
we

all what it is about to win or to lose it is we who need to choose this my very soul is mine to not obey his wish would for me be the crim

Now keep on dancing!

Natures journey, we are part of it makes us healthy, makes us sick it is the bottom and the very high it does not answer our question why keeps spinning and it spins us well what is her story I can't tell but hear the music and feel the groove you keep on dancing it makes you to move

behind her, behind the then not our enemy but our friend so start again, we want to dance there is some misery but don't want to comprehend

as day and night has followed us we are on earth and in the stars we are the night and we are the

not being dumb but very bright give the emotion and what will last it is the future, it's not the past

it's not a maybe but a very must the singing in the rain the forget about the pain the you can start anew

why only earth and not me and you

why not all of us

why not the last of us

just make the first step and call him or her and something more and win and you will find anything but in-between do it one-hundred times get anything but in between get psyched get stoned get to the border get wild in this world too much is stored just don't get bored look around make him a slave make him your king make sex now start take them to bed the in-between is where nobody sings there is no regret there is no regret when you make the first step where nobody dance you will find your friend your very own kind

You need the feeling!

Just as you go

your face turns to snow like seeing a ghost

you see yourself

inside a shelf

swallowed as a hole

your soul has been stolen from yourself

but you found yourself again again my friend

take the souls hand

keep it and never let it go again now you look around

feelings and emotions which you find on the ground

you take up

you lift your head up

get up

jump and scream

out of luck

now you can start

all before was wrong

I don't understand?

but now you have found it and with it

you will be strong

strong

long

better

small

and

you get

it, right

this time you will fight

you
found it
on
dirty streets

left
it
there
now
you
will keep

it to your heart

were so dead
from the very start when
you

thought
you
need to lose it

it
was a lie
now you again
can choose it and if you choose it well/you start a new tale a mystery tale for everyone else

not you/you now know the truth

again
be like
youth

are literally born

a dirty street

can

a friend

to yourself

you
help
yourself
misery
is still there
but
you
are not scared
anymore,
before
all got
you
bored
but not anymore the story comes down to the core

you found your soul again

never let it go again now you can be a friend now you can start again it was heaven sent

you looked down

and you found

your best friend

your soul

you will never will now lose control

never

lose

your

soul

A TOTAL RECALL

Sometimes you have to look together but sometimes.....

Sometimes you just can't wait!

on your travel along the road or on the sea with your boat you will come to see the disappearance of everything so you need to sing
alone
all is gone
all is new all is not you
is not a road
can't use your boat waves to high steadily
a constant fight
no guidance, no goal you need to swallow it all till you drop the ball make the final call

but not now
you need to go on a promise to the stone deep down the sea
a promise you need to keep to go where you haven't gone before to see what is in store you need the hardcore you need to stop getting bored you try it all it is the Neverland no helping hand

no one but you but no turning back
lost your track
where to go
you do not know so you start to walk again and suddenly everything appears as new land for you to see

a fantasy
a dream became reality once so afraid but now you see the demons are not what they used to be the thoughts that clouded your mind are away, next to you no more enemy or friend alone in the land/it seems as heaven sent
nothing needs to be claimed you walk and look around you feel the walking sound you feel that this is eternal truth you see that you are alone but you can choose to be more than a stone to be something more than anything before you want it all, you want more here it will give you the helping hand no more needs to defend anything

not a sin

You get higher!

First a short line

afterwards colors that made us blind do not think it is unkind just an illusion of the ones who are desperate to find going from one place to the other hidden in stains and work undercover who will be there playing the lover playing the body

don't feel sorry

was your dream a long time ago what does it do if you make them sorrow lost a long time ago

you found your way how to know what is wrong and what is right now you can take the fight to the next level

as a saint or as the devil the laws you obeyed made everyone paid but you disintegrate

and you do not want that fate

you want more

you don't want to be bored all of them are

but you are a superstar a new dream that was first dreamt by you everything is chaos there is no clue there is only you only you, you need to be true only you who needs to chose like singing the blues

but not if you alone

don't want to be like a stone you need to see yourself in someone else's

eyes

cries

denies

but you laugh

happiness

defenseless

you have seen

now you start again

an open hand

here is all

a pill

a promised land

will bring you high above up to the sky, no need for a pause

I see the wings you have go up and be brave go close to the sun/you may already won fortunes son

a better one

a dream, a dream

you sink in

can be done

indeed

a new breed

a new step you make soon you will celebrate

getting warmer

like drinking whiskey and wine with a strong spine

keep the good time

it is not a crime

Now you can fly!

wind blows it tells
you
where to go no remorse
no
hesitatio n
it is the ultimate satisfacti
a new creation
out of nowhere

it tells
his story
not one thing to worry about
cloud drifts
away only sunshine
again
with
friends
dreams
defend so it seems and so it will be the wind
is your key
to the
sky
above
go up
start to love
get rid of
clothes
take another
body
and go

in ecstasy
it is another
key
another
door
way to see no time to get
breed
seed from far beyond
where
you haven't yet gone but you need to be there
you
don't want to
scared
anymore
you want something else
you want to see
in the arms of love no higher feeling
no higher way to

than through the sex
deciphered text
it is in you
dissolves
evolves
in the bed of flowers
you stared at you for ours
but just now you
see
the abyss underneath the openness

the only ladder is love for you a beginning and a end no need to defend to be the hero here you want no fear

except it brings you further away what you have now seen as decay you don't want to stay

so you make your own way

You don't need
nobody!

Spread<sub>your</sub> wings what does<sub>it matter</sub> who will win

at the end it is<sub>your turn</sub> decisions

made without concerns

it is the you who makes the deal and it is your decision what is real more than all other things around is in your soul which makes you come around you already found

but you do not see

you keep it

but still ignore it isn't it bad to live on a pile of shit wouldn't it better to give it away and search for something clean that fits your needs and goals

take action

so you take control

it is maybe hot it is maybe cold does not matter it is your search so keep the story worth to be told being part of a statistic will not make you a happy and that is sure

somebody's poison but inside you the cure drift further away on what makes us all sick see messages as lies and this will do the trick then sit

and think again

been

what

wanted

now start again

still

hidden

but

search

for

fearless

world

made

mess

you

do

to become

dream

whatever

it may have been

seen

way

alone

still
can

Give up the judgments

let all fly or descent you can't only your key

not someone's else goal to be

not your goal to be like your goal is set, you want to be free

and in this feeling

you find your ceilings and without judgment, like a ghost

you are becoming the host of love and harmony

as it should be

a new old way to see

be with me

in the void until eternity

all is alright

nothing matters

no need to be better

in the wrong way

only to stay

in the same misery

all and each every day

so go away

we can be seen still I adore your feelings in you

in me

the hands going up and down so free

like you, like me what I used to be

I am not anymore

after you have opened this door

I saw the new face of mine saw the new face of earth the world gave a new birth and that is all it has to do we are swimming through the clouds up to the sun to be as one and to divorce again to sing alone to sing with you as my friend and as something more

you know the storm is coming we are going along don't feel trapped and don't feel like a stone

constantly!

So you try to do things but there is no flying with broken wings at least you think does not matter anyway
but also you don't want to talk about it anyway it's just don't work out that way you want it to do but how to do it
I have no clue so it was said I should talk about it but I don't know if it is O.K. and anyway I figure it out but need some time
time which is mine to be insane
this is not one of their games it is us they want to blame but we are not the same like they it makes all colors grey don't die true but don't live

also true
and from there it is only you and me and all we can constantly see
not necessary anymore to keep can't keep it that is the secret
let it slip away
till shit hits the fan I take the blame they can still simply stay but we will go away
again
two times the mind
is somewhere else
in stealth
this is not you I have seen before and now I go away with the ones I adore keep all your promises and lies there is a different land that we are drive ing to we make the new rules to obey
and to keep throwing away in the places never found or long forgotten I get away from the rotten
machine
a killing field so many are following down but we will not drown in your pool of lies in the skies we have thought of
there is no horror only beautiful colors that we are creating there is no more room for hesitating.

Where are you going to city boy?

I am going nowhere

like the dream I am searching for did not knew

was there some time ago and I am sitting in my room starring on the wall

thinking it through but actually thinking about nothing

I know to speak the tongue needs to be curled so I have spoken

and your lips came to me and kissed the worries goodbye

goodbye

they flew high up to the sky

no trespassing, just like a skyste

the touch of wind

I liked

so I kissed back

your lips

your hips

your legs and breast

no rest

for the wicked mind

going in blind

but it is not unkind

just the feelings of the blind of all the masses we are

everyone a superstar

but in your dreams we are all far apart but we are not

we are close

like a new mod

superstition

it goes like an app

but it feels like a trap

we set ourselves in but the trap is the outside

so we will win

just a minor shift in perspective a corrective

facility

a new ability

a new key for me

for you as well as far as I can tell does not make sense to walk the road as they did before need a new way to make it hardcore just we want so much more of what they lack

but we want to make a new track

a trajectory

straight to heaven we will be flying

trying

dying

who knows

but everyone has to go

do it right now and say yes to all no

the one who makes you start

sex is in the store

want it all and now want it even more for me a door

from bottom to top

I can't comprehend the secret of yours

you

I show you my chase

screaming sound

it is too much

we are breaking the door

no walls around

I want to treat you hardcore will be your whore

the sky is there

to take you with my hands you are heaven sent that I so much adore

come to my place

to the love beyond

of desire and touch

but we want more to the inner sanctum

no phantom

of easing the feel

still keeping it real

so much appeal

we make the deal

I am going your way

you are going to stay

wait

both we are drifting away now you are going my way

I am going to stay

both

we are drifting away

in this love nothing is what it seems relativity

the way for creativity of a new way to touch

to watch

to keep on kissing your lips

But there is you!

While I am sitting here

I constantly thinking over there can't keep my head straight

I do not have time to wait

I need to get it straight but my mind slips and I am thinking about your waist your legs

your body which is shining as a promise that is not lying to me or anyone else can't help myself

I need to get this through your skin is what I want to touch

invisible what you have done with me but the symptoms I can see

I can feel

I want to get it real get my head straight

and up

in the air

and just stare

flying high like a bird

I need that feeling

I just can't wait

there is no time

I have to get it straight

to the flesh

want to be fresh

can be fresh with you on my side

so many things to hide

not with you

if I can get through you

I can get through me too

I can touch your breasts and ass

I want to take everything which not lasts which is the desire for you and maybe I can burn happily in this hell too if I can have this one thing of yours which makes me want so much more no sense in artificial intelligence

it is all human nature

our own brand

like it is running through your hands feeling like sand

a desert full of feelings

killing emotions

senseless

with this burning desire

I can dance
with!

Driving in the car

nowhere to go

but to you

through the dark highway

I see the light

you did it my way

I did it yours

so much fight but also so much love counting the signs

what is yours I want to be mine

you give it to me

I see the sign

taking

and give it to you too

so much

in love

can't seem to find the way through to find me

only can find me in you taking your hands

on the backseat we fall over deep in you

all full of kisses

stroking

in the bowels of love

I see the sky high above a strong feeling to be free to live in harmony with two sides

destroy

but built again

like waves a back and forth no constraints for what is worth dancing in you

the ecstatic repercussions we do somewhere up ahead the dream of us not wanting to be at the stars but by you

everything I do

becomes truth

becomes all I ever wanted to

I knew it before you came at my closed door and as I saw you

I opened it up once more and this time I threw away the door no door between anything anymore never again should the door be closed

I wanted to be and now I am I wanted to be

Keep spinning around!

With the alcohol in our veins we keep us busy through the rain love came like a train no need to stop we had a plan how to escape the harsh reality to make us whole

to make us free

to make us strong against the pain so free in love no way to gain more than here

blurred pictures in frames you are spinning me again and now I don't know who should take the blame

for being insane

to love you so much keeps me shivering your simple touch the desires coming like the flames like waves from the deep ocean not turning back again but going over ourselves like we are the sand new ways to feel

new ways to bend

the thinking that don't need to defend

a small secret, a short kiss

what I want

a half second more

that counts the time of love

the feeling from high above this is what it is all about a perverse position of the body a night which makes an incredible story we will not forget

or at least we had the time not being sad

after so much wine

after so much water of ours

did not went sour

I am counting the hours to be back again on you

on your skin that makes me feel you do not need to speak

I know what to do

I go out of the blue

leaving the old behind

I can unwind

the prison we stuck in the feelings they told us as sin

we only need to be free within our souls beyond our control

let it flow

To be free from the Walls!

all intimacy

we are thinking

not the horror

not the curse

oh

does not get worse

gets better

have saved you

but you saved me first

we lost control

well

sometimes heaven is hell

be free

break up the link

let all sink

let it sink

Till the end

but then again,

again and again

again and again and

again and again and

again and again and

again and again and

again and again and

again and again and

again and again and

again and
