1*

This house does not speak your kind of language, say, what do you want.

2*

The door was locked, however, only made for me, it is open, no need for a key.

3*

Guardian, let me in, no, this is not a door for me, nothing is there, it is all in your fantasy.

4*

My mouse people, help me to survive, but you don't, you don't know anything but the drive.

5*

Your manifestation of the ignorance between pleasure and pain, a gain and therefore again and again.

6*

Jump, as they told you, wait, it was you who yelled the command.

7*

Thought everything I saw is out there, but it was that everything I saw was me, so I don't see you but I see me.

8*

Keep it steady, make it ready, do it again, you are my friend, aren't you, no clue what do to.

9*

I don't know what to do, help me, I am stuck in this mud.

10*

Drowning, swimming, flying, dying.

1*

The wings are burning, straight down to hell, but why no one can tell.

2*

Tell the stories again and again, don't make any sense, at least to me, they are my misery.

3*

What started, will last forever, a spell pretty clever to last forever, what started, departed.

4*

There was once a sense behind the meaning, but now all meaning lost it's sense.

5*

Could say the words of a genius, but all has been said, and now everything is bad, everything is sad, everything is made, and maybe that is all the end for another beginning, drowning, killing, swimming, feeling, again.

6*

Dropped ten words, took them back, made them whole again.

7*

Could only live in a cloud, you live in a cloud, they live in a cloud, everything within a cloud.

8*

A question was stated by me, but no answer came.

9*

Got lost, lost something, you lost something too, both in the blue, still alone, me and you.

10*

Made me smile once upon a time, but not anymore, I lost all I adored, I lost all my will, I only want to kill, but if a kill will not help, I will kill myself.

1*

Do I know what there is, intimidation, what the hell, don't use words, well, true, it only hurts.

2*

Take this pill to make you rest, but I am in so much stress, I need to confess, but why and why so much and not less.

3*

Alone, crumbling in the skies, where should I hide, there is no pride, no honour, no satisfaction, I break the fraction, one piece above and one below, one is hot like the sun, the other cold as the snow.

4*

There should be something here which learns you something, but there is only this thing which hides in between, the first gives raise to the second, make it happen, make it scream, make it bleed, make it win.

5*

You are going to war and lose in the first second, getting killed, how much fun, for the other one.

6*

Lost at the very beginning, now drowning, no more swimming.

7*

I tried to be in love with you, but you pushed me away, now I am a slave and don't know what to do.

8*

All the feelings that have been and will be feelings again.

9*

There was a dark night, but there was a sight, like during the day, I saw, and I started to pray.

10*

Felt brave, was jumping in, was scared to the bones, shaking like a leave, needed to leave.

1*

Fear and loneliness, I kept my promises, my promises and lies, needed an alibi.

2*

I can't go this way anymore, I don't want to feel like I felt before, now I don't know any more doors.

3*

There is no escape, I needed to wait, but there is something haunting me, I cannot see it, it is it.

4*

Trapped in a maze, lost my face, lost my soul, out of control, make it cold, words to be told.

5*

I see the feelings that coming like a storm, a worm, swallowed me hole, in the belly out of control.

6*

Trying to jump out of this scene, but I am stuck to deep, I am too deep in this terrible sin.

7*

A riddle I lost to solve, no control, only fear, only tears, only hopelessness, what a mess, what is this that can't be, what it is that I don't want to see, how to break free.

8*

Get ill or die trying.

9*

Lost the focus, lost the cause, lost the locus, lost the goals.

10*

Tried to make sense of it, but lost my head, now can't think, just lying in my bed.

1*

You are saying it is doing something to you, but it is something doing to me too.

2*

There is no chance under this circumstance, what was the idea to get to this again, now I am less lucky and cannot defend, me, myself and I.

3*

Yes, you show me the direction, but I can't move my head, nobody can, you are the other man.

4*

Yes, you may not believe it, but you can achieve it, and when you will, you can love it or you can kill.

5*

Tripple effects, going forward, all are looking, let's not be a coward.

6*

Come on over, will take you back to the other side, here you hide but soon you will fly.

7*

Track me down baby, I got the device in my hand, a frequency to the promised land, but I need your helping hand, heaven send.

8*

People, people of the world, it is time to think individualistically about the society, don't take the sobriety, text, another manifesto, presto.

9*

Bringing back some old ideas, I hear you well, I just don't believe them, you try to fake them.

10*

Time to pretend, I am the left hand, you are the right, now start to fight, but worlds will collide, for the ones who hide.

1*

Make me smile, you are my x-file, makes me wonder, me or her.

2*

You said I am confusing when taking with you, but I am confused when I am talking with you too.

3*

There is it, confronting myself with what I don't want to see, so I don't see, let's decide to disagree, I am trapped and you are free.

4*

The deep vessels reach the point of no return, may the heat makes us all burn.

5*

Looking into the ocean, but currently it is only a lake, a small piece, but remember it is your devotion, to remember that it is the ocean, not a lake, a small piece for peace.

6*

Brain machine is affected, by failure has not been detected.

7*

The sunken ship, someone is trying to get the treasure, makes one sick.

8*

Going down the hill was not hard, going back up is like a full start.

9*

A fist in time, makes me do a crime.

10*

Cause what does it over me, I say offer is just another cover, so I can swing my neck from here to the cape of no hope.

1*

Changed one thing, but I don't know which one, now I am lost in the maze, were my sense has gone.

2*

Both, an answer and a question, that makes the reflection.

3*

See yourself in the glass, who is more real, the one with the lies or the man that steals.

4*

Tried to circumvent the feeling, but the feeling noticed it all to well, now it sees me, now I cannot tell.

5*

Hi Dad, Hi Mom, Hi Dead, so, Hi Son.

6*

Got the body of the other realm, but it is full of hunger and it cannot feel.

7*

You've got experience but now it is a fence, you've got knowledge but now you don't understand, now you cannot forget and regret.

8*

Keep up the shine, keep up the protection from space and time, if it is found it will drag you down.

9*

Why should it be seen this way if nothing is to be gained.

10*

You want something to see but are you strong enough to see me.

1*

Kick in the nuts, that`s how truth feels, you go nuts.

2*

Does not make sense, does not matter, gets dense or gets better.

3*

Maybe another time, when we surf on the surface, we do not chase, infinity.

4*

The wolves are waiting, waiting to be released, or to break free, while they are hating, will making a feast, with you or some of you at least.

5*

Trying to get the connection, I don`t understand, so you understand.

6*

Perfect understandable between me and you, still a crack goes through the sky and makes it blue.

7*

The truth is not always something which makes sense.

8*

I died because of reasons, I don`t care I see it just like you left me by purpose.

9*

It is something small, and after all, it is tall, very tall, but just for me, as you can see.

10*

Makes no sense you said, yes, unfortunately it is still completely understandable.

1*

The light is up ahead, we have to go there, no I am scared, I will go back there.

2*

One goal still can mean different goals in time, a diamond for one and for the other just a coal.

3*

A mountain is needed, I know, but what was it for, a treasure for someone else, for others a door.

4*

Get the key, we are heading out, we will be free, we will be loud.

5*

We dream of a kiss like a fist.

6*

Don't be afraid, it's only hell.

7*

Wake up, heaven upon us, we need to fly not fall.

8*

Yes, you are showing me the truth, but it has sharp teeth, I confess, I bleed, in my youth, see no order and no border.

9*

Jump into the ocean, this ship is damned to sink, can't swim, but can drink.

10*

Offensive style, make me laugh a while, afterwards we want to cry, but we don't know why.

1*

This whole is too damn black, I am not going in there, you hear me.

2*

Damn, first I saw it but now it sees me.

3*

A glass of red wine, no it is blood, fine.

4*

The door did not opened but you still came in here, how?

5*

I saw the sky, twisted in red and blue, like a fight between me and you.

6*

Did you heard that, somebody came in, somebody who is mad, who thinks he is a king.

7*

I did some misinterpretations, but I did it because I don't want to know, as dreams become manifestations to an all-time-low.

8*

You made yourself a slave, right? Right.

9*

Dropping the mic, I am out, who the hell was saying this, I am still on the phone.

10*

At night I see the creatures behind the window, during the day they walk with me.

1*

Being more scared about myself than about you, but I don't know it.

2*

The deep voice told me, I am here, and now I disappeared.

3*

Someone else took over but I can still write the words from this dark place.

4*

Just because you have no eyes, does not mean you can't see.

5*

Everything is a lie, everything is allowed, the limit is the sky, but up there it is too loud.

6*

Get yourself together, it is just a dream, is it?

7*

Makes me sick thinking about it, but then again, I am doing it because I am used to it.

8*

Below a word is running around, but you don't know the name of it.

9*

Gave up the, started again, gave up, started again, it is only about the starting again, the gave up is just like your best friend, you like him but don't know since when.

10*

Can't catch it, my hands too hard, it is like air.

1*

No wishes, they betray you, you want something else, even your wishes can't help.

2*

Running in a maze, there is no beginning and no end, nothing here I need to understand.

3*

Somebody is talking to me, but am I forced to listen.

4*

Your little games that you played, so innocence but actually bad.

5*

A trick to say I don't know, you know, very well.

6*

Give me, I am jumping over the fence, into the dark castle, wait, the door is open.

7*

What should I say as somehow it is different but feels the same.

8*

Maybe one sentence is not enough, maybe it is, why to be strong, why to be tough, maybe because of this.

9*

Counting lessons, counting experiences, what does it mean, what does it change, getting fortune and fame, getting excited or feeling a need to blame, someone, himself or even you.

10*

There are different ways how to get along, maybe to look away, maybe to overthrown, maybe to hide, maybe to strike, maybe to just think something different, but at the very end, what will happen, to you if you decide what to do.

1*

Breaking the own laws, because you find out they are stupid, because you need, need, a corner to hide in, gliding away, on slippery eyes you pray, not to fall into decay, but is it enough.

2*

A dam was built, but the water needs to flow, down here, but there is no door, to let it out slow, only one door, the dam, damn.

3*

Got it right, got it wrong, both sides collide, no one belongs to the other, is like both, sisters and brothers.

4*

I could fight, but i could be wrong to fight the father or to fight the son, to fight the mother or to fight the sister, thoughts are sinister, take apart what was mine, feels like going blind.

5*

I am swimming there, sometimes feels like drowning, you are on the other side, flying but feels like crying.

6*

This black whole in the heart, till the end from the very start.

7*

Keep going going, walk the walk, talk the talk, being real in a world of illusions is like being an illusion.

8*

Take three, take two, take one, zero, now take one, take two, take three, now one.

9*

Think about it, think, now try to forget it, forget it, now remember it, try to remember, now it is different, it is the same but now different.

10*

Keep it straight what you want to do, but now you don't want it anymore, so bend it, bend it like you want.

1*

Tracing the trajectories of the past and trying to find the plausible events what could have happened instead, you think, you think, now you are dead, took too long, too late.

2*

The thoughts are too simple, the reality too complex, one before one next, where to kindle.

3*

Going too deep, you will see, then you flee, then you come back to see me.

4*

When there is nothing, you can throw in whatever you want, the hunger will haunt, no water to drink.

5*

Don't be surprised by being sad, feeling the sadness when it be said.

6*

A name, an enemy to keep you alive; your name, my enemy, to keep me alive.

7*

Don't go there, only hell is waiting, be scarred, not only a saying.

8*

A big swollen knot, how it got there, I don't know, but I am scarred.

9*

Better to die with the sword in the hand, then falling from grace by the scene of a promised land.

10*

You waited, you searched for me, now I am here, so what do you do with me as your key.

1*

Can't be there always but I am now, why the urge to leave the warmth and going back to the snow.

2*

Feels like betrayal but maybe it was you who left.

3*

Can't be there all the time, there is darkness even in the sunshine.

4*

Your words mean nothing to me, the feeling is how I can see.

5*

After a war, survivors, victims and winners are asking questions leading all of them to me.

6*

I hear what you are saying about me, but you are talking like you are not free.

7*

Chains, made long time ago, it was you who made them but not the need to go with them.

8*

As an enemy nor as a friend, something in-between which is different.

9*

Something made before, now it is a locked door, it needs to come in anyway, but not this way.

10*

The road is blocked, once to be reached, but not anymore, would be possible, but only down to the core, nothing above.

1*

Tried to get it in, but this is no place to lose or win, only emotions that need control, else for me a final call.

2*

Ends are coming and going, what to be seen is what you are following.

3*

If I lose this line, it would be tragic for me, but for you still being fine.

4*

The real truth tells little about the feeling one has, either being the worst or being the best.

5*

Feelings much more real than anything else out there, there is only you who can be scared.

6*

Try it once, you tried it, what did you learned, nothing of your concern.

7*

Forget, remember, forget, remember, till you know or till you die.

8*

You are just too much used to it, it makes everything fit, in or out, like a stone or a cloud.

9*

Seeing it there looking at something else, good, if I would be attacked there is nobody who could help.

10*

Better me than you, better me than you, seems to be the same but actually is the mind of the insane.

1*

Keep the clock ticking, tick tock tick tock, maybe all is slipping, away or very close, feels like dripping.

2*

Strong and wrong, what chances do you see to get free.

3*

Keep pushing, even if it is into the Abyss.

4*

A truth, maybe a lie, to keep me alive.

5*

It is for me, no one should see.

6*

Searched for an exit, start and end mixed it, together a stone like a feather.

7*

Dream about it, dream, dream, until it seem, s, to be, o, alone, on the throne.

8*

Keep it, keep it, you need to keep it, until you buried the secret.

9*

Wake up, time to die, hear the truth, but it`s a lie.

10*

Fight or give up, a demon switch, on off, witch, witch.

1*

Go a way, away, lay down, lay low, bow, bow down, to the king, to the crown, inside, find, found.

2*

Dying while living, or living while dying, your choice.

3*

Spell has taken away, but the hole is here to stay.

4*

I directed to her, now I will directing it to you.

5*

A easy spell from a kid from hell.

6*

It is all a dream, wake up.

7*

You just have feelings from someone else.

8*

Running around with nothing inside, how could you fight.

9*

Drifting in space, the neverending darkness, but wait, you are not alone, oh god.

10*

The horror, the horror, there is nothing more need to be said.

1*

I am looking around but everything is blurred and not the way how it should sound.

2*

Reading between the lines, well, don't you do it all the time.

3*

There are messages loud and clear, soon you will hear, how much you fear.

4*

There is the start, look, there is the end.

5*

Helpful advice, still just words, yes, just words, but makes something in you ringing, doesn't it.

6*

I tried, I tried so hard, well, I listened, I listened so long.

7*

A dangerous weapon, many have shot themselves, others killed the other one, sticks and stones can break your bones.

8*

There is a hole, never to be filled, therefore you going for the kill.

9*

It is a sad story, indeed, but just for you.

10*

Thought you can stand by my side, but now you hide, would need you, where are you, oh yes, I always was alone.

1*

A sad truth, is this not always be the case, both related to each other, like sister and brother, together forever.

2*

Tried and found, the Sphinx has spoken true words, but it was me who has asked the question first.

3*

A world within, a world outside, worlds collide, words collide.

4*

Like the mud in us have to leave the body, the mud comes in us to fill the body.

5*

Neverending thoughts, everything is blocked, all doors seem locked, bare hands only thing that i've got.

6*

Live is like a wheel, even for you, nothing you can do.

7*

I remember this scene, a sort of Deja Vue, it was there already before, and now it is here again.

8*

The past is like a wheel, it hits the ground you are standing on, time, you cannot steal, heal a burning wound.

9*

You don't know, we know, it has been know, it is known again, that's it, for now, and maybe forever, don't be smart, be clever.

10*

References to forgotten dreams and fights, all in vain you think, but there is always the second you can decide to turn the wheel, remember you will feel, again and again, a-gain and a-gain.

1*

A simple decision but a complex situation, an easy solution to a complex problem is sometimes needed for the hungry, cleaning dirty laundry, clean again, now play in the mud.

2*

You try to, you try again, you try and you try , you fail and you fail, failing and trying, there is now a all-time-low, again, you have to try and you fail, again and a gain.

3*

Maybe for you it is the right thing not to ask, living in the past, or in the just, now, forward, before, beside, collide, stand-tall, hide, lay down, hide, going in front, in the back, side, but always in the thoughts.

4*

Try to side just one side of something which has two, you don't want to, it is a coin they are saying but it is a dice, plus two, second me, first you, then third, makes the dirt, makes the fourth, hardcore the six and seven, wait, forgot a number two, it is again me, it is again only you.

5*

Sentences going longer, feelings getting stronger.

6*

You don't want to except the inevitable, incredible.

7*

Hear the voice, one word, one choice, the world, hurt.

8*

Lesson learned, but will need some time.

9*

I came with some questions, now I leave with even more questions.

10*

I came with some answers, no I do not know anything anymore.

1*

Can you refer to something you pretend you don't know, you say you stay but you will go.

2*

Something is speaking but it is not me.

3*

Tried to be alone, but I am not.

4*

Mixing times is a funny sport, but for something time does not exist and instead it marks the spot.

5*

Hey, won't you love me, I am fucking great.

6*

Come to me as a joker, but you are an ace.

7*

Laugh dying, dying laughing, love dying, dying love.

8*

To keep it alive you have to cut deep.

9*

A wound is also something to remember, what has been.

10*

... Yesterday, today, tomorrow ...

1*

I know what you are looking for, but it is not me who is saying this.

2*

Few other trying different things, isn't it good that you have yours trying.

3*

Monstrous, long and thick, short and small, Mild.

4*

Keep me busy I like the way you are.

5*

Trust me, fail me, hate me, fake me.

6*

Everything can be said, maybe not.

7*

Up, down, left right, to the front or behind, you choose.

8*

I seem to understand the way it is, but it is not the way I like, should I hide, or should I fight.

9*

An angel who is saving the desperate, saving who hate, saving no one who loves.

10*

Running to something which is not there, trying again.

1*

Trying again, running to something which is not there.

2*

Lost my world when I lost you, or so I think.

3*

Could I have you, it would be anything I need, only you.

4*

Stay by my side, I need you, but you go on.

5*

Alone, why oh why, I know, I know, let it be, in the stratosphere.

6*

I can't touch you, can't feel you, you are gone, but still on my mind.

7*

Now after you left me alone, I hate myself, cause I can't hate you, I can hate you, I hate you.

8*

Maybe unfair, maybe no reason at all, does not matter, I fear, fear not, maybe unfear.

9*

After I am missing you, after all it is your fault, I hate you so much and I adore you so much.

10*

A devil, hidden in an angels suit, there is no way I will forgive you, not for you.

1*

You said you will just leave for a short while, but I am now waiting an infinite amount of time.

2*

Let it be, let it be, no, I need to have it, calm down, no I can't, I won't, I want.

3*

My poor little child, you are trying something which has gone wrong a long time ago, but why?

4*

I hear the music in my head, it makes me misery and bad.

5*

I break the law, I will never change, he said that, but I can rearrange, what, no I cannot.

6*

Stupid letters that were missing, I am thinking about you.

7*

You can see it, don't deny it.

8*

Can you lend me your hand, so I can stand.

9*

Trending arguments, first ecstasy, than fear, first me, than tears.

10*

Kill the motherfucker, it is worth it.

1*

Forgive the one, but you don't forgive, you only forget, than you remember, than you regret.

2*

Two people who like to hurt, like to see you in the dirt.

3*

Oh how boring it is to win all the time, on a diet with nothing but wine.

4*

Try it, I dare you, I double dare you, anyway, just another joke.

5*

Fog, a seal to be broken, what I am seeing, without sun, a night, undone, wrong.

6*

Pistols against my head, who is pulling the trigger.

7*

It is just an image, a symbol for a pilgrimage, what image, what you are talking about, but you will see soon enough, so cold by the stars.

8*

The real world is nothing but a fantasy, the mind nothing more than the real world.

9*

Getting all cleaned, but what for.

10*

There is no end, but why, only when we idea.

1*

Seems we want to make everything in order, but even when we succeed all ends in horror.

2*

You are doing it for something else, but for what you do not know.

3*

A mystery what the reason really is, behind the curtain is something not nothing, suffering and laughing.

4*

Jouissance, make me disappear, in despair I am dying full of guiltiness and extasy,

5*

Another feeling telling me about every step, I hear them but no with a voice but a feeling.

6*

The room fills with water, indeed like a feeling, up to the ceiling, drowning, drawing pictures in my head.

7*

Just can't tell enough, but then again, I am telling too much.

8*

Some thoughts will never been told, some words never been said.

9*

You accepted it, now die, die like anyone else.

10*

There is a dream somewhere far before me, it was a dream I once remembered, I search for this dream now.

1*

There is a sun which was taken by us, hidden in a shelf, to be protected from all else, we simply forgot that we still have it.

2*

Tracing down my words, my dreams, they get connected with something that hurts, with a deep sin.

3*

There were no questions asked, a simple life, maybe not a quiet life.

4*

Going in and going out, to be or not to be, do decide or to obey.

5*

Simple advice, laugh at it.

6*

I've got it, but I am still looking at you.

7*

Transfiguration of my mind, over time, taking back what is mine.

8*

I see the shadows which are hunting our souls, but eyes are deep and very cold.

9*

Getting what she was taking, taking what he was getting.

10*

I dreamed your dream last night, but I could not understand.

1*

There is a hope in you, it is just a different hope.

2*

A see you dancing, why going under.

3*

Space explorations, satisfaction of the wicked, come on I am talking with you.

4*

Get the credit line, a new triple A product, fire and forget.

5*

The wolves are haunting the golden goal, immortality.

6*

See, they can live alone, there is a feeling.

7*

Dark corners of the mind, no, there is no light.

8*

Make sense out of it, you can't, why still believing

9*

I don't know these reasons, but they are maybe true for you.

10*

I am searching for something wrong, here I am weak, there I would be strong.

1*

I tried to forget, but I couldn't, no I think I shouldn't, I wouldn't.

2*

There once was another dream in me as well, living the dream even in hell.

3*

I could not believe and still don't, won't.

4*

Somewhere I am trapped, between the lines, while something is writing the sentence of my life.

5*

I see why you are here, you know much more than me.

6*

A glimpse to the land I could flee, maybe could sail to as a man who wants to be.

7*
